Notes on Searching the catalogue

Searching may be achieved through the Acrobat Reader Search facility by clicking on the binoculars on the Reader Toolbar.

If you want to search by subject the best way is to use the appropriate Dewey number in conjunction with the search facilities mentioned above. For your convenience this page and the next contain the Dewey numbers most appropriate to the Cathedral Library. There are limitations of which you need to be aware; for example if you search on 232 (Dewey number for Jesus Christ) you will also find all books published by Darton Longman and Todd because their ISBN numbers include the sequence 232. However with appropriate intelligence this can be accommodated and useful subject searches undertaken.
