Orff's Carmina Burana is a hugely popular work, in part due to its frequent use in advertisements and films, but principally because of its visceral immediacy and its monumental scale. We pair this with Copland's Appalachian Spring - one of his best loved works which includes a set of variations of the Shaker melody Simple Gifts - and Morten Lauridsen's O magnum mysterium, only written a few years ago but already considered a modern classic.

*There will be a retiring collection in aid of CHASE hospice care for children.
