

GUILDFORD
CATHEDRAL

Welcome

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

Sunday 12 November 2017

LECTIO DIVINA takes place today at 8.45am in the Library. An informal opportunity to reflect on scripture together in a contemplative way for about 15 minutes. All welcome. No need to attend every session.

SUNDAY SCHOOL takes place in the Library during the 9.45am Eucharist. There is a DIY crèche in the Exhibition Room (next to the Library) for under 3s. For services in the Nave, hymn books and Books of Common Prayer can be found behind the kneeler on the seat in front of you.

GIVING: Regular worshippers are asked to join the Planned Giving Scheme. For more information please ask a Steward. This greatly helps the Cathedral with financial planning. Visitors and UK taxpayers are asked to use the Gift Aid envelope for their offering towards the work and worship of the Cathedral. Please complete the details on the envelope to enable us to claim back the tax as Gift Aid. (Cheques to Guildford Cathedral.) It is not necessary for non-taxpayers to use the envelopes.

COMMUNITY: If you have been worshipping here for a little while, and are beginning to feel at home and would like to know more about playing your part in the life of this community, please get in touch via welcome@guildford-cathedral.org. If you have been a regular at the Cathedral for six months or more, please ensure that your name is added to the Cathedral Community Roll – forms available from the Stewards.

NEWS SHEETS: The last six editions can be viewed from the website <https://www.guildford-cathedral.org/news>

INTROIT Standing as I do before God Cecilia McDowall (b. 1951)

I have seen death so often that it is not strange or fearful to me.

Standing as I do in view of God and eternity I realise patriotism is not enough:

I must have no hatred or bitterness towards anyone.

And when the time was close, for once her eyes filled with tears, then she quietly rose, walked silently through the stilled prison, the grey dawn light,
passed gas flame, tired flowers,
out beyond her final night, a flame alight in hours before infinity, in the presence of death leaving all enmity in view of God,
we are air after breath.

Words: Edith Cavell (1865-1915) Seán Street (b. 1946)

HYMNS 359, 413, 384

PSALM 82

RESPONSES Bernard Rose (1916-1996)

CANTICLES Evening Service in D minor Thomas Attwood Walmisley (1814-56)

READINGS Judges 7.2-22; John 15.9-17

ANTHEM Greater Love, John Ireland (1879-1962)

Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it.

Love is strong as death. Greater love hath no man than this,

that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness.

Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus.

Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

I beseech you, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

Canticles 8, John 15, 1 Peter 2, 1 Corinthians 6; Romans 12

NOTICEBOARD

Flowers in the Cathedral

Thank you to Lyn Sleet, Sue Howland, Rachel Impey and Elaine Brown for the beautiful flowers in the Cathedral this week.

Can you help?

Volunteers are needed to join the welcome team and to staff the Ticket Booth for our extremely popular Christmas Gift & Food Fair. The Fair takes place on Thursday 16 November, Friday 17 November and Saturday 18 November. A number of shifts are available and any time you could give will be gratefully received. If this sounds like something you could offer your time for, please contact Caroline and/or Katrina on 01483 547870 or email events@guildford-cathedral.org

Come and enjoy a Tour – until end of November

You may be very familiar with the Cathedral but have you ever taken a Guided Tour or a Tower Tour? Our experienced and friendly Guides provide regular scheduled tours and tickets for these can be obtained from the Cathedral Shop on the day or booked on-line through the website. There are also self-guided tours which focus on particular aspects of our wonderful building including a self-guided pilgrimage. For children there are new trails, including Hidden Animals and Explorer Bags to help them find them. Our Tower Tours take place on Saturdays at 2pm and 3.15pm. Climb the 249 steps and be rewarded with the best view in Surrey. Tickets for Tower Tours can be booked on-line and there will sometimes be some available on the day from the Cathedral Shop. Details at www.guildford-cathedral.org/visit/tours/schedule

Contactless donation trial

We're one of twelve cathedrals who are thrilled to be part of the trial of contactless donation units. Many people no longer carry cash, so this will allow visitors to make a donation by tapping their contactless payment card on the unit. We want all our visitors to be given the opportunity to donate £5 per person. Our average donation per visitor is currently 30p. The machine will be in place very soon. For any questions please contact our Head of Fundraising, Susan Barry on 01483 547878 or susan@guildford-cathedral.org

Coins Scheme

Coins Scheme: The total rises to £16,202 thanks to the exchange in Dublin of old Irish pund to Euros, then to Sterling. Small euro change has also brought us in £55 from France. Thanks again to our willing helpers. We urgently need travellers to Hungary, Sweden, Norway and the Czech Republic. Would love to hear from you!

Christmas Gift & Food Fair – Thursday 16 to Saturday 18 November

This year's Christmas Gift & Food Fair is a bigger version of our well loved Winter Fair. Preview evening Thursday 6.30 to 9pm. A limited number of entrance tickets are available (£6 per person). This includes a glass of mulled wine and a mince pie. The fabulous Cathedral Choir will be singing in the background. Tickets for Friday and Saturday are £3 per person. Tickets available from <https://www.guildford-cathedral.org/events/christmas>

Cakes needed for tea - 26 November

Our Week of Guided Prayer begins on 26 November with a tea in the Cathedral. We will need about 12 cakes to accompany the tea. Please could you let Canon Mavis know if you could provide a cake? They can be brought to the Cathedral on the morning of 26 November. It's not too late to sign up to participate in the week. For more information e-mail welcome@guildford-cathedral.org

Seasons Café and Restaurant

Seasons are open seven days a week, 9am to 4.30pm. Hot meals are available until 3.00 pm and all day breakfasts are available on Saturdays and Sundays. If you haven't yet visited do so soon. There is a varied menu, table service, play space for children and a friendly atmosphere.

Creative Christmas – Friday 17 November and 24 November

Join in one of our exclusive workshops where you will discover your creative talents in Soap Making and Wreath Making. Further details from <https://www.guildford-cathedral.org/events/handmade-christmas-workshops>

Theological Book Group – Sunday 26 November, 11.30am

The next meeting will take place in the Chapter House and we'll be discussing I thought there would be cake by Katharine Welby-Roberts, which explores her personal journey towards a 'healthy appreciation' of herself in the face of depression and anxiety. She offers ways of coping with everyday issues and embrace our self-worth before God. Dates/books for 2018 begin with Reni Eddo-Lodge's Why I'm no longer talking to white people about race (28 January) and James K. A. Smith's You are what you love: the spiritual power of habit (18 March).

God and the Big Bang – 17 January 2018, 7pm to 9pm

An exciting event to get you thinking about and exploring the interaction of Science and Faith with interactive workshops. Join us and Professor Andrew Halestrap, Amy Johnson and Hannah Malcolm for a thought provoking evening. For more information contact Charlotte Potter, Head of Schools' and Family Learning on: 01483 547880 or charlottep@guildford-cathedral.org

GUILDFORD CATHEDRAL is a place of prayer, reflection, work and celebration, held in particular affection by the many thousands of people who helped build it by buying a brick. There is much to offer to visitors and to those who are looking for a church community to call home. All regular weekday and Sunday services are open to all. The beautiful building and the excellent choral tradition contribute to making our Cathedral a place to which, once visited, you will want to return. As well as the rhythm of daily worship we maintain an exciting programme of arts, events, lectures, workshops, exhibitions and concerts.

The Cathedral is a centre for worship and mission to support the ministry of the Bishop in faith and engagement. The Cathedral is a sacred space and an open community of people who together engage with God and the wider world, for the common good. It is a focus and resource for the whole community: a place of daily choral worship, a space for stillness and prayer, a place of pilgrimage and a venue for concerts, art and education.
