HYMN 138

COLLECT

Almighty Father,

who in your great mercy gladdened the disciples
with the sight of the risen Lord:

give us such knowledge of his presence with us,

that we may be strengthened and sustained by his risen life

and serve you continually in righteousness and truth;

through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,

who is alive and reigns with you,

in the unity of the Holy Spirit,

one God, now and for ever. Amen

OLD TESTAMENT READING Zephaniah 3.14 - end read by Alice Bishop

Sing aloud, O daughter Zion; shout, O Israel! Rejoice and exult with all your heart, O daughter Jerusalem! The Lord has taken away the judgements against you, he has turned away your enemies. The king of Israel, the Lord, is in your midst; you shall fear disaster no more. On that day it shall be said to Jerusalem: Do not fear, O Zion; do not let your hands grow weak. The Lord, your God, is in your midst, a warrior who gives victory; he will rejoice over you with gladness, he will renew you in his love; he will exult over you with loud singing as on a day of festival.

I will remove disaster from you, so that you will not bear reproach for it. I will deal with all your oppressors at that time. And I will save the lame and gather the outcast, and I will change their shame into praise and renown in all the earth. At that time I will bring you home, at the time when I gather you; for I will make you renowned and praised among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes.

PSALM 4

Answer me when I call, O God of my righteousness :

You set me at liberty when I was in trouble;
have mercy on me and hear my prayer.

How long will you nobles dishonour my glory :

How long will you love vain things and seek after falsehood?

But know that the Lord has shown me his marvellous kindness :

When I call upon the Lord, he will hear me.

Stand in awe, and sin not :

Commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still. Response

Offer the sacrifices of righteousness :

And put your trust in the Lord.

There be many that say :

‘Who will shew us any good?’

Lord lift up the light of your countenance upon us.

You have put gladness in my heart :

More than when their corn and wine and oil increase.

In peace I will lie down and sleep :

For it is you Lord, only, who make me dwell in safety. Response

NEW TESTAMENT READING Acts 3.12-19 read by Ann Bourne

When Peter saw it, he addressed the people, ‘You Israelites, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we had made him walk? The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our ancestors has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and rejected in the presence of Pilate, though he had decided to release him. But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked to have a murderer given to you, and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. And by faith in his name, his name itself has made this man strong, whom you see and know; and the faith that is through Jesus has given him this perfect health in the presence of all of you.

‘And now, friends, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. In this way God fulfilled what he had foretold through all the prophets, that his Messiah would suffer. Repent therefore, and turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out.

GOSPEL READING Luke 24.36b-48

Choir Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

All Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Choir Lord Jesus, explain the scriptures to us.
Make our hearts burn within us as you talk to us.

All Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

While they were talking about this, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you.' They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. He said to them, 'Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have.' And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, 'Have you anything here to eat?' They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate in their presence.

Then he said to them, 'These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you—that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled.' Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, 'Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

SERMON The Venerable Stuart Beake
INTERCESSIONS led by John Mitchell
HYMN 468

MOTET Ave Verum Corpus, Edward Elgar (1857-1934)

Ave verum corpus, natum
de Maria Virgine,
vere passum, immolatum
in cruce pro homine,
cujus latus perforatum
unda fluxit sanguine;
esto nobis praegustatum
in mortis examine.
O Jesu dulcis, O pie,
O Jesu fili Mariae.

*All hail, true body
of the blessed Virgin born,
which in anguish to redeem us didst suffer
upon the cross;
from whose side, when pierced by spear
there came forth both water and blood:
be to us at our last hour
the source of consolation.
O Jesus loving, O holy,
O Jesu Son of Mary.*

Text: 14th Century, attr Pope Innocent VI.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Living God, your Son made himself known to his disciples
in the breaking of bread:

ANTHEM Light's glittering morn, Frederick Wadely (1882-1970)

Light's glittering morn bedecks the sky;
Heav'n thunders forth its victor cry;
The glad earth shouts her triumph
high,
And groaning hell makes wild reply;
Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

While He, the King, the mighty King,
Despoiling death of all its sting,
And, trampling down the powr's of
night,
Brings forth His ransom'd Saints to light.
Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

With gentle voice the Angel gave
The women tidings at the grave:
"Fear not, your Master shall he see;
He goes before to Galilee."

Then hast'ning on their eager way
The joyful tidings to convey,
Their Lord they met, their living Lord,
And falling at His feet adored.

All praise be Thine, O risen Lord,
From death to endless life restored;
All praise to God the Father be,
And Holy Ghost eternally, Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Amen.

Rather than competing with the scale of the cathedral, Howard has created a series of sealed urns and one vessels, decorated with flashes of colour. He invites us to meditate on our hopes and memories as we pause and pay attention to the beauty of small things. In his own words, these stations of Meditations is about 'exploring space within space and the experience of specific spaces - and the resulting spiritual contemplation- something that is both intimate and immense.' GUILDFORD

CATHEDRAL

GUILDFORD CATHEDRAL is a place of prayer, reflection, work and celebration, held in particular affection by the many thousands of people who helped build it by buying a brick. There is much to offer to visitors and to those who are looking for a church community to call home. All regular weekday and Sunday services are open to all. The beautiful building and the excellent choral tradition contribute to making our Cathedral a place to which, once visited, you will want to return. As well as the rhythm of daily worship we maintain an exciting programme of arts, events, lectures, workshops, exhibitions and concerts.

The Cathedral is a centre for worship and mission to support the ministry of the Bishop in faith and engagement. The Cathedral is a sacred space and an open community of people who together engage with God and the wider world, for the common good. It is a focus and resource for the whole community: a place of daily choral worship, a space for stillness and prayer, a place of pilgrimage and a venue for concerts, art and education.
