

GUILDFORD
CATHEDRAL

Welcome

THE FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Sunday 22 April 2018

LECTIO DIVINA takes place today at 8.45am in the Library. An informal opportunity to reflect on scripture together in a contemplative way.

SUNDAY SCHOOL takes place in the Library for those 3-11. There is a DIY crèche in the Exhibition Room (next to the Library) for under 3s.

HYMN BOOKS For services in the Nave, hymn books and Books of Common Prayer can be found behind the kneeler on the seat in front of you.

COFFEE AND FELLOWSHIP Coffee and tea and other refreshments available at the back of Seasons after the Eucharist. No need to queue.

GIVING Regular worshippers are asked to join the Planned Giving Scheme. For more information please ask a Steward. Visitors and UK taxpayers are asked to use the Gift Aid envelope for their offering towards the work and worship of the Cathedral. Please complete the details on the envelope to enable us to claim back the tax as Gift Aid.

COMMUNITY If you have been worshipping here for a little while, and are beginning to feel at home and would like to know more about playing your part in the life of this community, please get in touch via welcome@guildford-cathedral.org. If you have been a regular at the Cathedral for six months or more, please ensure that your name is added to the Cathedral Community Roll – forms available from the Stewards.

HYMN 208 (parts 2, 3 and doxology)

COLLECT

Almighty God,
whose Son Jesus Christ is the resurrection and the life:
raise us, who trust in him,
from the death of sin to the life of righteousness,
that we may seek those things which are above,
where he reigns with you
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

OLD TESTAMENT READING Genesis 7.1-5,11-18,8.6-18,9.8-13
read by Janet Lawson

Then the Lord said to Noah, 'Go into the ark, you and all your household, for I have seen that you alone are righteous before me in this generation. Take with you seven pairs of all clean animals, the male and its mate; and a pair of the animals that are not clean, the male and its mate; and seven pairs of the birds of the air also, male and female, to keep their kind alive on the face of all the earth. For in seven days I will send rain on the earth for forty days and forty nights; and every living thing that I have made I will blot out from the face of the ground.' And Noah did all that the Lord had commanded him.

In the six-hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on that day all the fountains of the great deep burst forth, and the windows of the heavens were opened. The rain fell on the earth for forty days and forty nights. On the very same day Noah with his sons, Shem and Ham and Japheth, and Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons, entered the ark, they and every wild animal of every kind, and all domestic animals of every kind, and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, and every bird of every kind—every bird, every winged creature. They went into the ark with Noah, two and two of all flesh in which there was the breath of life. And those that entered, male and female of all flesh, went in as God had commanded him; and the Lord shut him in.

The flood continued for forty days on the earth; and the waters increased, and bore up the ark, and it rose high above the earth. The waters swelled and increased greatly on the earth; and the ark floated on the face of the waters.

At the end of forty days Noah opened the window of the ark that he had made and sent out the raven; and it went to and fro until the waters were dried up from the earth. Then he sent out the dove from him, to see if the waters had subsided from the face of the ground; but the dove found no place to set its foot, and it returned to him to the ark, for the waters were still on the face of the whole earth. So he put out his hand and took it and brought it into the ark with him. He waited another seven days, and again he sent out the dove from the ark; and the dove came back to him in the evening, and there in its beak was a freshly plucked olive leaf; so Noah knew that the waters had subsided from the earth. Then he waited another seven days, and sent out the dove; and it did not return to him anymore.

In the six hundred and first year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from the earth; and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and saw that the face of the ground was drying. In the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry. Then God said to Noah, 'Go out of the ark, you and your wife, and your sons and your sons' wives with you. Bring out with you every living thing that is with you of all flesh—birds and animals and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth—so that they may abound on the earth, and be fruitful and multiply on the earth.' So Noah went out with his sons and his wife and his sons' wives.

Then God said to Noah and to his sons with him, 'As for me, I am establishing my covenant with you and your descendants after you, and with every living creature that is with you, the birds, the domestic animals, and every animal of the earth with you, as many as came out of the ark. I establish my covenant with you, that never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of a flood, and never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth.' God said, 'This is the sign of the covenant that I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for all future generations: I have set my bow in the clouds, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and the earth.'

PSALM 23

The Lord is my shepherd :
therefore can I lack nothing.
He makes me lie down in green pastures :
and leads me beside still waters. Response.

He shall refresh my soul :

and guide me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil :
for you are with me; your rod and your staff comfort me. Response.

You spread a table before me in the presence of those who trouble me :
you have anointed my head with oil and my cup shall be full.

Surely goodness and loving mercy shall follow me all the days of my life :
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever. Response.

NEW TESTAMENT READING Acts 4.5-12 read by Helen Warren

The next day their rulers, elders, and scribes assembled in Jerusalem, with Annas the high priest, Caiaphas, John, and Alexander, and all who were of the high-priestly family. When they had made the prisoners stand in their midst, they inquired, 'By what power or by what name did you do this?' Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, 'Rulers of the people and elders, if we are questioned today because of a good deed done to someone who was sick and are asked how this man has been healed, let it be known to all of you, and to all the people of Israel, that this man is standing before you in good health by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead. This Jesus is "the stone that was rejected by you, the builders; it has become the cornerstone." There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among mortals by which we must be saved.'

GOSPEL READING John 10.11-18

Choir Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

All Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Choir I am the good shepherd;
I know my own sheep and my own know me.

All Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

Jesus said, 'I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. The hired hand, who is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away—and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. The hired hand runs away because a hired hand does not care for the sheep. I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd. For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it up again. I have received this command from my Father.’

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

SERMON Canon Paul Smith
INTERCESSIONS led by Maureen Pappin
HYMN 609

MOTET Locus iste, Anton Bruckner (1824-1896)

Locus iste a Deo factus est, inaestimabile sacramentum, irreprehensibilis est.

This place was made by God, a priceless mystery; it is without reproof.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Merciful Father,
you gave your Son Jesus Christ to be the good shepherd,
and in his love for us to lay down his life and rise again:
keep us always under his protection,
and give us grace to follow in his steps;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Cathedral Sound System

Regular worshippers will be only too aware of the technical issues with our new sound system. Resolution of this is the responsibility of a small group comprising of the Sub Dean, the Canon Liturgist, the Director of Operations and the Dean's Virger who will work with our sound engineer and consultant from the University to work towards the solutions. The group will ensure the replacement of faulty equipment under warranty (some of which is already on order), how the system can best be optimised to take account of the building's acoustic, and the training of sound system operators as well as those who use it as orators. Further updates will be given, in the meantime everyone's forbearance and patience is greatly appreciated.

Art Exhibition – Ashley Howard Ceramics until 17 May

Do take some time to view the exhibition by the renowned ceramic artist, based at the University of the Creative Arts in Farnham, Ashley Howard entitled Mediations (a project funded by an Arts Council Grant). Further information is available from Canon Julie (who contributed an essays to the catalogue) or at www.ashleyhoward.co.uk

Canon Andrew Bishop

Canon Andrew will be Licensed as Priest-in-Charge of Croydon Minster on Monday 3 September at 8.00pm. All are welcome and details will posted in due course. His final service at the Cathedral will be the Cathedral Eucharist on Sunday 15 July, for which he will preach and preside. There will be refreshments and presentation directly after the service. All are very welcome as we prepare to send Andrew as a blessing to Croydon. For more information please contact the Dean.

Coffee on second Sundays

In seeking to be more environmentally aware the Cathedral is reducing the amount of waste we produce. We would like to encourage regular members of the congregations to bring their own coffee mug on second Sundays. We will continue to use up our store of paper cups while we are sourcing totally recyclable alternatives. Thank you for your cooperation.

Congratulations to our Head Chorister of the Girls' Choir

Hannah has been selected as girl soprano for a Decca Classics recording of Mater Requiem by Rebecca Dale who heard Hannah on the BBC Young Chorister of the Year on BBC Radio 2. Well done Hannah.

Cathedral Community Roll Revision

The Community Roll is revised every three years and at that time it is necessary for all who wish to be entered onto the new Roll to complete a Community Roll Form. Names may be entered of those over 16 years of age who are regular worshippers at the Cathedral, are employed staff or regular volunteers or those who live in the Cathedral precinct. In order to ensure compliance with the new Data Protection Regulations please complete all sections of the form – this will enable us to store your contact details and to contact you electronically or by post. Forms available from the Guides Desk at the west end of the Cathedral or from the Steward at 8.00am services. The new Roll will be published on 13 May.

GUILDFORD CATHEDRAL is a place of prayer, reflection, work and celebration, held in particular affection by the many thousands of people who helped build it by buying a brick. There is much to offer to visitors and to those who are looking for a church community to call home. All regular weekday and Sunday services are open to all. The beautiful building and the excellent choral tradition contribute to making our Cathedral a place to which, once visited, you will want to return. As well as the rhythm of daily worship we maintain an exciting programme of arts, events, lectures, workshops, exhibitions and concerts.

The Cathedral is a centre for worship and mission to support the ministry of the Bishop in faith and engagement. The Cathedral is a sacred space and an open community of people who together engage with God and the wider world, for the common good. It is a focus and resource for the whole community: a place of daily choral worship, a space for stillness and prayer, a place of pilgrimage and a venue for concerts, art and education.
