COMPETITION

Design a Cathedral kneeler

Design a Cathedral kneeler using the template overleaf and your design will be entered into a competition to win a goody-bag of prizes including a Roald Dahl Create and Colour Set, a 'Rainy Day' Box, glittery pencils, a sticker book, a 'Rockin' Rabbit' toy, and a set of books.

Competition details (overview—please see the Competition Information T&C document on our website for further explanation):

- ◇ The competition will be judged by Juliet Dunmur, grand-daughter of Sir Edward Maufe (Cathedral architect).
- ◇ Competition opens on Saturday 18 September at the Heritage Family Fun Day and closes on Friday 8 October 2021.
- ◇ Judging will take place during the week commencing Monday 11 October, with the winner(s) being announced on Tuesday 19 October.
- ◇ Winners will be contacted via the email address they have included on their entry and announced via our website and social media channels.
- ◇ Entries posted in should be addressed to Becki Hartley, Guildford Cathedral, Stag Hill, Guildford, GU2 7UP, ensuring the below box for the entrant's details is completed as fully as possible.

DESIGN SPECIFICATIONS

- Use the template overleaf. It is a landscape template so the long edges of the rectangle are at the top and bottom, and the short edges are at the sides.
- The subject of your design should be taken from 'the history of our own time for the pleasure and interest of generations to come'. This means you should include an image and/words in your design to show what is important in your life now, in 2021.
- The kneeler design must include a diamond shape, to represent our Diamond Anniversary.
- Your design can be one image crossing over the central line; it doesn't have to have a separate image on each coloured section.
- Your design can include words.
