CATHEDRAL

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY CATHEDRAL EUCHARIST

WELCOME

GOD'S GENEROSITY

There are plenty of people who think that they are owed a living; and there are plenty of people in the Church who think that they are owed salvation. They can just muddle along in the same old sweet way and trust that God will be pleased with them and reward their faithfulness.

Jesus has news for such people: God's salvation is offered to others too, and not necessarily on the same terms.

This is why the Church has to be open to all, and if all have no interest in what the Church is doing, then there are flaws in our life and our welcome that need urgently to be addressed.

PARTICIPATION IN THE SERVICE

Please sing the hymns and the response to the Psalm and say together the words in bold type. Although posture is suggested please do whatever is most comfortable for you. A large print copy of this order of service is available from the stewards.

RECEIVING HOLY COMMUNION

All who are baptized or confirmed are welcome to receive the sacrament. There is no obligation to drink from the common cup. However, please do not intinct (dip) your wafer. If you would prefer to receive a blessing, please keep your hands at your sides. Gluten-free bread is available at the station on the left (north) side at the front.

DO-IT-YOURSELF CRÈCHE AND SUNDAY SCHOOL

There are toys available for under school-aged children in the baptistry during the morning Choral Eucharist. This can be found at the back of the Cathedral in the right hand side corner. Parents/carers are asked to remain with their children at all times and to keep the toys in the baptistry. If you need any help please ask one of the stewards on duty. A Sunday School for children aged 3-11 years is held on the first Sunday of the month. We also have activity bags available for children to use on weeks where there isn't Sunday School – please ask a steward to show you where they are.

OFFERING

Your support makes a real difference to the ministry and mission of Guildford Cathedral. If you would like to support this work on a regular basis it's very simple to set up a direct debit via the Parish Giving Scheme. The phone number is 0333 002 1271, and the Cathedral reference code is 170617001. One-off donations can be made using the Gift Aid envelopes or a contactless donation by using the contactless collection plates on your way out, or the contactless box (by the west doors of the Cathedral) or our QR code. If you use the contactless plates or box and you are a taxpayer, please complete a green gift aid envelope and write 'contactless donation' on the front; please put the envelope in the plate or the cash box at the west end. We also welcome the donation of foreign coins and notes; please see the notice at the back of this booklet. On behalf of all at Guildford Cathedral, thank you.

NEW CANON MISSIONER

Our new Residentiary Canon Missioner is the Reverend Dr Mike Branscombe, who come to us from St. Andrew's Church, Cobham.

Mike's Installation takes place at Choral Evensong at 6.00 p.m. this evening. Please make a special effort to be present to welcome Mike and his family, and to pray that he, his family, and the cathedral community will be richly blessed in the years to come.

MUSIC TODAY

The service this morning is sung this morning by the Cathedral Choir (boys and lay clerks).

MASS SETTING

Missa brevis – Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina (c.1525-1594)

PRESIDENT AND PREACHER

The president this morning is the Dean, the Very Reverend Bob Cooper, and the preacher is the Reverend Patrick Coleman.

Please stand

THE GATHERING

HYMN

At the Lamb's high feast we sing praise to our victorious King, who hath washed us in the tide flowing from his pierced side;
praise we him, whose love divine gives his sacred blood for wine,
gives his body for the feast,
Christ the victim, Christ the priest.

Where the Paschal blood is poured,
death's dark angel sheathes his sword;
Israel's hosts triumphant go through the wave that drowns the foe.
Praise we Christ, whose blood was shed,
Paschal victim, Paschal bread;
with sincerity and love
eat we manna from above.

Mighty victim from the sky,
hell's fierce powers beneath thee lie;
thou hast conquered in the fight,
thou hast brought us life and light.

Now no more can death appal,
now no more the grave enthal:
thou hast opened paradise,
and in thee thy saints shall rise.

Easter triumph, Easter joy, sin alone can this destroy;
from sin's power do thou set free souls new-born, O Lord, in thee.
Hymns of glory and of praise,
risen Lord, to thee we raise;
holy Father, praise to thee,
with the Spirit, ever be.

*Words: Latin Breviary hymn, tr Robert Campbell (1814-1868)
Music: CP 138 Salzburg, Jakob Hintze (1622-1702), harmonised by J.S. Bach (1685-1750)*

In the name of the Father,
and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

THE GREETING

Grace, mercy and peace
from God our Father
and the Lord Jesus Christ
be with you
and also with you.

PRAYERS OF PENITENCE

Deacon Brothers and sisters in Christ,
as we gather at the Lord's table
we must recall the promises and warnings given to us in the Scriptures.

Let us therefore examine ourselves and repent of our sins.

Almighty God, our heavenly Father,
we have sinned against you and against our neighbour
in thought and word and deed,
through negligence, through weakness,
through our own deliberate fault.
We are truly sorry
and repent of all our sins.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
who died for us,
forgive us all that is past and grant that we may serve you in newness of life
to the glory of your name.
Amen.

THE ABSOLUTION

The almighty and merciful Lord
grant you pardon and forgiveness of all your sins,
time for amendment of life,
and the grace and strength of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

GLORIA IN EXCELSIS

Gloria in excelsis Deo
et in terra pax hominibus
bonae voluntatis.
Laudamus te, benedicimus te,
adoramus te, glorificamus te.
Gratias agimus tibi propter magnam gloriam tuam.
Domine Deus, Rex coelestis.
Deus Pater omnipotens.
Domine Fili unigenite, Jesu
Christe. Domine Deus, Agnus
Dei, Filius Patris: qui tollis
peccata mundi, miserere
nobis; qui tollis peccata
mundi, suscipe deprecationem nostrum; qui sedes ad
dexteram Patris:
miserere nobis.
Quoniam tu solus sanctus;
tu solus Dominus;
tu solus Altissimus,
Jesu Christe,
cum Sancto Spiritu,
in Gloria Dei Patris. Amen.

*Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to those of good will.
We praise you, we bless you,
we worship you, we glorify you.
We give thanks to you for your great glory.
Lord God, heavenly King.
God the Father almighty.
Only Son of the Father, Jesus Christ. Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father: who take away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us; who take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; who sit at the right hand of the Father:
have mercy upon us.
For you alone are holy;
you alone are the Lord;
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.*

THE COLLECT

Let us pray.

A moment of silent prayer.

O Lord, we beseech you mercifully to hear the prayers of your people who call upon you;
and grant that they may both perceive and know what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to fulfil them;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Please sit FIRST READING Jonah 3.10-4.11 read by Rachel Impey

A reading from the book of Jonah.

When God saw what the people of Nineveh did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them; and he did not do it.

But this was very displeasing to Jonah, and he became angry. He prayed to the Lord and said, 'O Lord! Is not this what I said while I was still in my own country? That is why I fled to Tarshish at the beginning; for I knew that you are a gracious God and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, and ready to relent from punishing. And now, O Lord, please take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live.' And the Lord said, 'Is it right for you to be angry?' Then Jonah went out of the city and sat down east of the city, and made a booth for himself there. He sat under it in the shade, waiting to see what would become of the city.

The Lord God appointed a bush, and made it come up over Jonah, to give shade over his head, to save him from his discomfort; so Jonah was very happy about the bush. But when dawn came up the next day, God appointed a worm that attacked the bush, so that it withered. When the sun rose, God prepared a sultry east wind, and the sun beat down on the head of Jonah so that he was faint and asked that he might die. He said, 'It is better for me to die than to live.'

But God said to Jonah, 'Is it right for you to be angry about the bush?' And he said, 'Yes, angry enough to die.' Then the Lord said, 'You are concerned about the bush, for which you did not labour and which you did not grow; it came into being in a night and perished in a night. And should I not be concerned about Nineveh, that great city, in which there are more than a hundred and twenty thousand people who do not know their right hand from their left, and also many animals?'

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM 145.1-8

The choir sings the response through once, which the congregation then repeats. All join in the response during the psalm, as indicated.

The Lord is close to all who call him.

I will exalt you O God my King :
and bless your name for ever and ever.

Every day will I bless you :
and praise your name for ever and ever.

Great is the Lord and highly to be praised :
his greatness is beyond all searching out. Response.

One generation shall praise your works to another :
and declare your mighty acts.

They shall speak of the majesty of your glory :
and I will tell of all your wonderful deeds.

they shall speak of the might of your marvellous acts :
and I will also tell of your greatness. Response.

They shall pour forth the story of your abundant kindness :
and joyfully sing of your righteousness.

The Lord is gracious and merciful :
long-suffering and of great goodness. Response.

Chant: John Larkin Hopkins (1819-1873)

SECOND READING Philippians 1.21-30 read by Berrie Norton

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Philippians.

For to me, living is Christ and dying is gain. If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labour for me; and I do not know which I prefer. I am hard pressed between the two: my desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better; but to remain in the flesh is more necessary for you. Since I am convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of you for your progress and joy in faith, so that I may share abundantly in your boasting in Christ Jesus when I come to you again.

Only, live your life in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that, whether I come and see you or am absent and hear about you, I will know that you are standing firm in one spirit, striving side by side with one mind for the faith of the gospel, and are in no way intimidated by your opponents. For them this is evidence of their destruction, but of your salvation. And this is God's doing. For he has graciously granted you the privilege not only of believing in Christ, but of suffering for him as well - since you are having the same struggle that you saw I had and now hear that I still have.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Please stand GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

The Gospel Acclamation is played by the organist, sung by the choir, and then sung by everybody. As the procession passes, please turn to face the proclamation of the Gospel.

Open our heart, O Lord, to accept the words of your Son.
Alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL READING Matthew 20.1-16

The Lord be with you
and also with you.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew

Jesus said to his disciples:

‘The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire labourers for his vineyard. After agreeing with the labourers for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. When he went out about nine o’clock, he saw others standing idle in the market-place; and he said to them, “You also go into the vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.” So they went. When he went out again about noon and about three o’clock, he did the same. And about five o’clock he went out and found others standing around; and he said to them, “Why are you standing here idle all day?” They said to him, “Because no one has hired us.” He said to them, “You also go into the vineyard.” When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, “Call the labourers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and then going to the first.” When those hired about five o’clock came, each of them received the usual daily wage. Now when the first came, they thought they would receive more; but each of them also received the usual daily wage. And when they received it, they grumbled against the landowner, saying, “These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.” But he replied to one of them, “Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what belongs to you and go; I choose to give to this last the same as I give to you. Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?” So the last will be first, and the first will be last.’

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Please sit

SERMON The Reverend Patrick Coleman

Please stand THE CREED

Let us declare our faith in God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.

Amen.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION led by Shirley-Margaret Lloyd

The president invites everyone to pray, saying

In the power of the Spirit and in union with Christ,
let us pray to the Father.

Please sit or kneel. The bidding and response are

Lord, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

In conclusion, the leader says

Merciful Father,
accept these prayers
for the sake of your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.
Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE SACRAMENT

Please stand THE PEACE

Live your life in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ.

The peace of the Lord be always with you
and also with you.

Let us offer one another a sign of peace.

All may exchange a sign of peace.

PREPARATION OF THE TABLE

HYMN

Just as I am, without one plea
but that thy blood was shed for me,
and that thou bidd'st me come to thee,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, though tossed about with many a conflict, many a doubt, fightings and fears within, without,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind;
sight, riches, healing of the mind,
yea, all I need, in thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, thou wilt receive, wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve:
because thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, thy love unknown
has broken every barrier down;
now to be thine, yea, thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, of that free love
the breadth, length, depth, and height to prove,
here for a season, then above,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Words: Charlotte Elliott (1789-1871)

Music: CP 308 Saffron Walden, Arthur Henry Brown (1830-1926)

TAKING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

Yours, Lord, is the greatness, the power,
the glory, the splendour, and the majesty;
for everything in heaven and on earth is yours.

All things come from you,
and of your own do we give you.

THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

You are worthy of our thanks and praise,
Lord God of truth,
for by the breath of your mouth
you have spoken your word,
and all things have come into being.

You fashioned us in your image and placed us in the garden of your delight.

Though we chose the path of rebellion
you would not abandon your own.

Again and again you drew us into your covenant of grace.
You gave your people the law and taught us by your prophets to look for your reign of justice, mercy and peace.

As we watch for the signs of your kingdom on earth,
we echo the song of the angels in heaven,
evermore praising you and singing:

Choir	Sanctus, sanctus, sanctus, Dominus Deus Sabaoth. Pleni sunt caeli et terra gloria tua. Hosanna in excelsis. Benedictus qui venit in nomine Domini. Hosanna in excelsis.	Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.
--------------	--	--

Lord God, you are the most holy one,
enthroned in splendour and light,
yet in the coming of your Son Jesus Christ
you reveal the power of your love made perfect in our human weakness.

Embracing our humanity,
Jesus showed us the way of salvation;
loving us to the end,
he gave himself to death for us;
dying for his own,
he set us free from the bonds of sin,
that we might rise and reign with him in glory.

On the night he gave up himself for us all he took bread and gave you thanks;
he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying:
*Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.*

In the same way, after supper
he took the cup and gave you thanks;
he gave it to them, saying:
*Drink this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.*

Therefore we proclaim the death that he suffered on the cross,
we celebrate his resurrection, his bursting from the tomb,
we rejoice that he reigns at your right hand on high and we long for his coming in glory.

As we recall the one, perfect sacrifice of our redemption,
Father, by your Holy Spirit let these gifts of your creation be to us the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ;
form us into the likeness of Christ and make us a perfect offering in your sight.

Look with favour on your people
and in your mercy hear the cry of our hearts.
Bless the earth,
heal the sick,
let the oppressed go free
and fill your Church with power from on high.

Gather your people from the ends of the earth to feast with [N and] all your saints
at the table in your kingdom,
where the new creation is brought to perfection
in Jesus Christ our Lord;

by whom, and with whom, and in whom
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all honour and glory be yours, almighty Father,
for ever and ever.

Please sit or kneel THE LORD'S PRAYER
As our Saviour taught us, so we pray:.

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours
now and for ever.
Amen.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

We break this bread
to share in the Body of Christ.

Though we are many, we are one body,
because we all share in one bread.

GIVING OF COMMUNION

Draw near with faith.
Receive the body of our Lord Jesus Christ
which he gave for you,
and his blood which he shed for you.

Eat and drink
in remembrance that he died for you,
and feed on him in your hearts
by faith with thanksgiving.

All who are baptized or confirmed are welcome to receive the sacrament. There is no obligation to drink from the common cup. However, please do not intinct (dip) your wafer. If you would prefer to receive a blessing, please keep your hands at your sides. Gluten-free bread is available at the station on the left (north) side at the front.

AGNUS DEI

Choir Agnus Dei,
 qui tollis peccata mundi,
 miserere nobis.

Agnus Dei,
qui tollis peccata mundi,
miserere nobis.

Agnus Dei,
qui tollis peccata mundi,
dona nobis pacem.

Lamb of God,
who take away the sin of the world,
have mercy on us.

Lamb of God,
who take away the sin of the world,
have mercy on us.

Lamb of God,
who take away the sin of the world,
grant us peace.

COMMUNION MOTET

*O sacrum convivium in quo Christus sumitur, recolitur memoria passionis eius,
mens impletur gratia,
et futurae gloriae nobis pignus datur.*

O sacred feast where Christ is the food,
his passion is called to mind,
our being is filled with grace,
and the pledge is given of future glory.

*Antiphon for Second Vespers, Corpus Christi, written by Thomas Aquinas (1225-1274),
and set to music by Thomas Tallis (c.1505 - 1585)*

Please stand PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Let us pray.

A moment of silent prayer.

Almighty God,
you have taught us through your Son
that love is the fulfilling of the law:
grant that we may love you with our whole heart
and our neighbours as ourselves;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Almighty God,
we thank you for feeding us
with the body and blood of your Son Jesus Christ.
Through him we offer you our souls and bodies
to be a living sacrifice.
Send us out in the power of your Spirit
to live and work to your praise and glory. Amen.

THE SENDING OUT

THE BLESSING

God the Father,
who first loved us and made us accepted in the beloved Son,
bless you.

Amen.

God the Son,
who loved us and washed us from our sins in his own blood,
bless you.

Amen.

God the Holy Spirit,
who sheds abroad the love of God in our hearts,
bless you.

Amen.

The blessing of the one true God,
to whom be all love and all glory for time and for eternity,
come down upon you and remain with you always.

Amen.

HYMN

During the hymn the procession moves to the west end of the Cathedral.

As the procession passes you, please turn and face west. This movement signals the turn of our attention to Christ in the world as the offering of our lives continues there.

Forth in the peace of Christ we go;
Christ to the world with joy we bring;
Christ in our minds, Christ on our lips,
Christ in our hearts, the world's true King.

King of our hearts, Christ makes us kings;
kingship with him his servants gain;
with Christ, the Servant-Lord of all,
Christ's world we serve to share Christ's reign.

Priests of the world, Christ sends us forth
this world of time to consecrate,
this world of sin by grace to heal,
Christ's world in Christ to re-create.

Christ's are our lips, his word we speak;
prophets are we whose deeds proclaim Christ's truth in love, that we may be Christ in the world, to spread Christ's name.

We are the church; Christ bids us show that in his church all nations find their hearth and home, where Christ restores true peace, true love, to humankind.

Words: James Quinn (1919-2010)

Music: CP 429 Duke Street, melody attributed to John Hatton (d. 1793)

THE DISMISSAL

Deacon Go in the peace to love and serve the Lord.

In the Name of Christ. Amen.

Please remain standing whilst the crucifer leads the choir along the south aisle into the south ambulatory, after which there are refreshments at the west end.

You are welcome to listen to the voluntary or quietly make your way to the back of the Cathedral.

ASKING FOR PRAYER AND INTERCESSION

Please contact the Dean's Virger and his team on 01483 547877 or via virger@guildford-cathedral.org if you would like to add a name to the list of people prayed for in services. Please ensure that you have appropriate permission to do so. Canon Mavis continues to operate a confidential prayer group, and you can contact her to request confidential prayer on 01483 808097 or via mavis.wilson@guildford-cathedral.org.

IAN NICHOLSON

Andy Pitter writes that his uncle Ian Nicholson sang for many years in the alto line of the Cathedral Choir. Ian died on 12 August, and his wife Sonia followed him on 28th August. If anyone would like to attend a celebration of their lives at the South Lodge Hotel (south-east of Horsham) on Sunday 4 October at 1pm, please contact Andy (07797 747215).

FOREIGN CURRENCY FOR THE CATHEDRAL

Our grand total has increased to £33,300 following recent donations. Many thanks to all who have contributed. The Scheme welcomes gifts of foreign (and UK) banknotes and coins - anything from a few coins to large accumulations and collections. Some supporters are putting aside current UK coppers and small silver as well. The age, validity and country of origin of the currency is not important. Donations can be left with the Sacristy or at the Office, labelled for the Coins Scheme. If you cannot get to the Cathedral, contact me on 37petherwin@gmail.com and I can collect from your home. Your support is greatly valued. John Mitchell

FROM THE DEAN

I have been invited to be one of the keynote speakers at the Sialkot Convention in the Diocese of Sialkot in Pakistan. The Sialkot Convention is the largest gathering of Pakistani Christians in the country, there will be approximately 8,000 to 10,000 people there. I have been asked to preach at the main Eucharist of the Convention and also to give several addresses as well as some teaching for the clergy. I will be leaving the UK on the 22nd of September and returning on the 4th October. Please hold our brothers and sisters in Pakistan in your prayers and please pray for me as I travel.

FRIENDS OF GUILDFORD CATHEDRAL MONTHLY SUNDAY LUNCH

A table has been booked for 12 people on Sunday 11 October at 12.15 at The Queens Head, The Street, East Clandon, Guildford GU4 7RY. The restaurant has asked us to confirm number in group by Monday 5 October. Please let me know if you would like to join us for lunch. Friends and non-Friends are welcome. Please contact Yvette Wright Secretary to the Friends. email: friends@guildford-cathedral.org or phone 07851 371590 to confirm you would like to join us. I have not been asked to give a food order in advance.

CONGRATULATIONS TO STUART BEAKE

The Dean writes: We are thrilled to share the wonderful news that the Venerable Stuart Beake has been awarded the Cross of St Augustine, the Canterbury Cross, by the Archbishop of Canterbury, in recognition of his outstanding service to the Church of England.

This is a richly deserved honour. Stuart has given himself to the life of the Church with extraordinary generosity, wisdom and faithfulness, and so many of us, here at the Cathedral and across the Diocese, have been blessed by his ministry, his kindness and his steady good humour. It is a joy to see that devotion recognised in this way. Please join us in offering Stuart our warmest congratulations, and in giving thanks to God for all that he has given, and continues to give, to the Church and to so many people. Many congratulations, Stuart, from all of us!

SAFEGUARDING AT GUILDFORD CATHEDRAL

The Cathedral is committed to Safeguarding as an integral part of its ministry and mission, promoting a safer culture and the welfare of every child, young person and adult. As such, the Cathedral has robust policies, procedures and guidelines in place, to ensure good practice throughout the community. Chapter has overall responsibility for Safeguarding, and the Safeguarding Leadership Group reports to Chapter every month on the progress of our Safeguarding journey and any issues arising. The members of the Safeguarding Leadership Group are listed below and can be contacted at any time on any Safeguarding concern you may have about yourself or another member of the Cathedral Community.
