GROWING OUR CULTURAL HERITAGE

Guildford Cathedral stands as an architectural masterpiece, but it is our choirs' voices that breathe life into our sacred space. By becoming a Patron, you help preserve this cultural gem and its musical traditions for future generations.

NURTURING YOUNG TALENT

Your support enables us to provide scholarships, workshops, and educational opportunities for young musicians, fostering the next generation of choral leaders and performers.

ENRICHING OUR COMMUNITY

Music on the hill draws diverse members of our community together through the shared language of music. Your patronage directly contributes to the enrichment of our community life and enables us to share our musical excellence beyond Stag Hill.

Your impact as a Patron

SUPPORTING EXCELLENCE:

Your contribution directly funds the recruitment and retention of world-class musicians, ensuring that the Cathedral Choir, Organists and Lay Clerks maintain their exceptional standard of performance.

MUSIC EDUCATION OUTREACH:

Your generosity extends the reach of our educational programmes, enabling us to engage with local schools and communities, enriching lives through music.

COMMISSIONING NEW WORKS:

With your support, we will have the means to commission new compositions and expand our musical repertoire, adding fresh voices to the timeless tapestry of music within our Cathedral walls.

Embracing the Joy of Music

The walls of our Cathedral echo and hum with the notes of countless services, individuals' voices blending together, soaring upwards, amongst and between our arches, into the space where they rest in the air, circulate, live and resonate. We have decorated it with song, clothed it in prayer and melody, and blessed it.

Katherine Dienes-Williams, Organist and Master of the Choristers and Guildford Cathedral

It's great to think that I'm part of a team that works so hard together to create beautiful music.

Singing in the Cathedral is fun, enjoyable, uplifting and a privilege. I've also made many amazing friends.

It's an irreplaceable experience, this is enjoyable as well as rewarding.
