At the Cathedral Eucharist this morning we are delighted to welcome Dame Sarah Goad HM Lord-Lieutenant of Surrey. Dame Sarah has been a great supporter of the Cathedral during her term of office and we will be saying a few words of thanks towards the end of the service to mark her retirement. We extend a very warm welcome to the parents, Godparents, families and friends of Katherine Elena Samuel and Chloe Evelyn Seagrim who will be baptised during the service. We will also be welcoming Edmund Newton who was baptised in the Cathedral on 31 May. We welcome too the Friends of Guildford Cathedral who will be holding their AGM after the service. We are grateful to representatives of the Friends for presenting the offertory and reading the lesson at this morning's service.

Choral Evensong today is the last service of the academic year for the Cathedral Choir, do come if you can to show your support for our wonderful choir. We are delighted to be installing 3 new choristers, Jack Dean, Joe Meade and Kate Young. We say a sad farewell and thank you to following people who have completed their time with the choir. Boy Choristers: Oscar Farrell, Tom King, Tom McGillivray and James Perkins. Girl Choristers: Maddie McConnell, Alicia Pettit and Tania Kew (who we said goodbye to on Friday). Choral Scholars: George Bowen, Sam Grainger. Organ Scholar: Gillian McNaughton and Girls' Vocal Coach: Jennifer Snapes.

Thank you to Jane Thomson, Sue Howland, Elaine Brown, Hazel Sharples and Lynn Sleet for arranging the flowers in the Cathedral for the degree ceremonies next week. Thank you to Shirley-Margaret Lloyd for making a donation towards the flowers in memory of The Revd Canon Ernest and Mrs Olive Walls.

Amongst those who are sick we remember in our prayers

Valerie Barber, Barbara Brown, Martin Brown, Freddie Butt, Roger Howland, Sue Phillips, Hilary Schofield

LECTIONARY TEXTS FOR TODAY'S CATHEDRAL EUCHARIST

Communicant members of all Christian churches are welcome to receive Holy Communion. If you are not a communicant and would like to receive a blessing, please inform the clergy by bringing this leaflet to the Altar Rail.

COLLECT FOR THE DAY

Merciful God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as pass our understanding: pour into our hearts such love toward you that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

NEW TESTAMENT READING – Ephesians 1: 3-14

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love. He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight he has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ, as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance towards redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM 85

- 1 Lord, thou art become gracious unto thy land : thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob.
- 2 Thou hast forgiven the offence of thy people : and covered all their sins.
- 3 Thou hast taken away all thy displeasure : and turned thyself from thy wrathful indignation.

- 4 Turn us then, O God our Saviour : and let thine anger cease from us.
- 5 Wilt thou be displeased at us for ever : and wilt thou stretch out thy wrath from one generation to another?
- 6 Wilt thou not turn again, and quicken us : that thy people may rejoice in thee?
- 7 Shew us thy mercy, O Lord : and grant us thy salvation.
- 8 I will hearken what the Lord God will say concerning me : for he shall speak peace unto his people, and to his saints, that they turn not again.
- 9 For his salvation is nigh them that fear him : that glory may dwell in our land.
- 10 Mercy and truth are met together : righteousness and peace have kissed each other.
- 11 Truth shall flourish out of the earth : and righteousness hath looked down from heaven.
- 12 Yea, the Lord shall shew loving-kindness : and our land shall give her increase.
- 13 Righteousness shall go before him : and he shall direct his going in the way.
- Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end.
Amen.

GOSPEL READING – Mark 6: 14-29

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

Glory to you, O Lord.

King Herod heard of it, for Jesus' name had become known. Some were saying, 'John the baptizer has been raised from the dead; and for this reason these powers are at work in him.' But others said, 'It is Elijah.' And others said, 'It is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old.' But when Herod heard of it, he said, 'John, whom I beheaded, has been raised.' For Herod himself had sent men who arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, because Herod had married her. For John had been telling Herod, 'It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife.' And Herodias had a grudge against him, and wanted to kill him. But she could not, for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he protected him. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed; and yet he liked to listen to him. But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his courtiers and officers and for the leaders of Galilee. When his daughter Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests; and the king said to the girl, 'Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it.' And he solemnly swore to her, 'Whatever you ask me, I will give you, even half of my kingdom.' She went out and said to her mother, 'What should I ask for?' She replied, 'The head of John the baptizer.' Immediately she rushed back to the king and requested, 'I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter.' The king was deeply grieved; yet out of regard for his oaths and for the guests, he did not want to refuse her. Immediately the king sent a soldier of the guard with orders to bring John's head. He went and beheaded him in the prison, brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. Then the girl gave it to her mother. When his disciples heard about it, they came and took his body, and laid it in a tomb.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

MOTET: O salutaris hostia

O salutaris Hostia
Quae coeli pandis ostium.
Bella premunt hostilia;
Da robur, fer auxilium.

Uni trinoque Domino
Sit sempiterna gloria:
Qui vitam sine termino,
Nobis donet in patria.
Amen.

*O Saving Victim opening wide
The gate of heaven to all below.
Our foes press on from every side;
Thine aid supply, Thy strength bestow.*

*To Thy great name be endless praise
Immortal Godhead, One in Three;
Oh, grant us endless length of days,
In our true native land with Thee.
Amen.*

*Text: St Thomas Aquinas (1225-74)
Music: Edward Elgar (1857-1934)*

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

God of our pilgrimage, you have led us to the living water: refresh and sustain us as we go forward on our journey, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EVENSONG ANTHEM TEXT: The Twelve

I Without arms or charm of culture,
Persons of no importance
From an unimportant Province,
They did as the Spirit bid,
Went forth into a joyless world
Of swords and rhetoric
To bring it joy.

When they heard the Word, some demurred, some mocked, some were shocked: but many were stirred and the Word spread. Lives long dead were quickened to life; the sick were healed by the Truth revealed; released into peace from the gin of old sin, men forgot themselves in the glory of the story told by the Twelve.

Then the Dark Lord, adored by this world, perceived the threat of the Light to his might. From his throne he spoke to his own. The loud crowd, the sedate engines of State, were moved by his will to kill. It was done. One by one, they were caught, tortured, and slain.

II O Lord, my God,
Though I forsake thee
Forsake me not,
But guide me as I walk
Through the valley of mistrust,
And let the cry of my disbelieving absence
Come unto thee,
Thou who declared unto Moses:
"I shall be there."

III Children play about the ancestral graves, for the dead no longer walk.
Excellent still in their splendour are the antique statues: but can do neither good nor evil.

Beautiful still are the starry heavens: but our fate is not written there.
Holy still is speech, but there is no sacred tongue: the Truth may be told in all.
Twelve as the winds and the months are those who taught us these things:
envisaging each in an oval glory, let us praise them all with a merry noise.

Text: W H Auden (b. 1965)
Music: William Walton (1902-1983)

NOTICEBOARD

Facilities: The work on the Green to prepare for the arrival of the Marquee has been completed, although there will also be a trench dug next month to allow for facilities to be laid to the Marquee (electricity, heating, internet etc). The toilets have been re-decorated and the north flag pole repaired.

Fundraising: A hugely successful event took place at a private motor museum in Churt on 23 June to raise money for the Appeal. The 'sponsor a pipe' initiative is in full swing, the grand total achieved now being £374,000 in phase two of the appeal (not including money raised at Churt). The target is £800,000.

Coins Scheme: The Cathedral runs a Coins Scheme, welcoming gifts of foreign and UK coin of any age and of any country, to help with fund-raising. We have been running since August 2006, and are delighted to announce that we have passed the £10K mark with the current total standing at £10,007! Donations may be left with the Sacristy or Office. If anyone is travelling to the Caribbean in the near future, please contact John Mitchell to see whether he can supply currency for your destination.

Diocesan Summer School - 6 to 23 July 2015: Entitled 'Finding Freedom' to mark the 800th anniversary of Magna Carta. Both Bishop Andrew and Bishop Ian will be speaking, as well as a range of presenters on topics such as The Liberty Trail from Magna Carta to the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, Freedom from Addiction, Living in Freedom and Work and Freedom. Full details from www.cofeguildford.org.uk/life/lifelong-learning/summer-school.

Last Magna Carta Lecture - Tuesday 21 July at 7.45pm in the nave: Magna Carta: Charter for our times or antiquarian icon? By the Revd Robin Griffiths-Jones
Entry free, all welcome, full details of all Magna Carta events are available from the Cathedral website.

Raise the Roof! Concert – Thursday 23 July at 7.30pm: We are delighted by the huge response and support we've had for this concert. Tickets at £15 each (U18s free) still available from the website or Penny Peters on 01483 547868. Patrick Dienes-Williams has put together an orchestra of 94 young musicians and professional players all giving two days of their time for free. The programme includes: Elgar Cello Concerto and Holst The Planets. It promises to be a fabulous evening, do come if you can to what will be the last concert in the Cathedral before the organ is dismantled and the building works begin.

Looking forward to September... The Cathedral community is invited to a buffet lunch in our new marquee, on Sunday 13 September. Community Roll members and stewardship givers will have received invitations by email if we have your email address; paper copies are available at the back of the Nave for those not on email (if this applies to you, please collect yours to save us the postage). All of our congregation are welcome. This will be an occasion of fellowship, with a focus on opportunities to enjoy and be involved in the life of the community, as well as the launch of a new stewardship scheme. Please reply, and please come.
