THE ADVENT PROSE

COLLECT

Almighty God,
give us grace to cast away the works of darkness
and to put on the armour of light,
now in the time of this mortal life,
in which your Son Jesus Christ came to us in great humility;
that on the last day,
when he shall come again in his glorious majesty
to judge the living and the dead,
we may rise to the life immortal;
through him who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT READING Isaiah 64.1-9 read by Charles Martin

O that you would tear open the heavens and come down, so that the mountains would quake at your presence - as when fire kindles brushwood and the fire causes water to boil - to make your name known to your adversaries, so that the nations might tremble at your presence! When you did awesome deeds that we did not expect, you came down, the mountains quaked at your presence. From ages past no one has heard, no ear has perceived, no eye has seen any God besides you, who works for those who wait for him. You meet those who gladly do right, those who remember you in your ways.

But you were angry, and we sinned; because you hid yourself we transgressed. We have all become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous deeds are like a filthy cloth. We all fade like a leaf, and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away.

There is no one who calls on your name, or attempts to take hold of you; for you have hidden your face from us, and have delivered us into the hand of our iniquity. Yet, O Lord, you are our Father; we are the clay, and you are our potter; we are all the work of your hand. Do not be exceedingly angry, O Lord, and do not remember iniquity for ever. Now consider, we are all your people.

PSALM 80.1-8

Turn us a-gain, O God; show the light of your coun-te nance and we shall be saved.

Hear O Shepherd of Israel you that led Joseph like a flock :

Shine forth you that are enthroned upon the cherubim :

Before Ephraim Benjamin and Manasseh :

Stir up your mighty strength and come to our salvation.

Turn us again O God :

show the light of your countenance and we shall be saved. Response

O Lord God of hosts :

how long will you be angry at your people's prayer?

You feed them with the bread of tears :

you give them abundance of tears to drink;

You have made us the derision of our neighbours :

and our enemies laugh us to scorn.

Turn us again O God of hosts :

show the light of your countenance and we shall be saved. Response

NEW TESTAMENT READING I Corinthians 1.3-9 read by Elaine Brown

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus, for in every way you have been enriched in him, in speech and knowledge of every kind - just as the testimony of Christ has been strengthened among you - so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ. He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful; by him you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

GOSPEL READING Mark 13.24-end

Choir Alleluia, alleluia.

All Alleluia, alleluia.

Choir Let us see, O Lord, your mercy,
And give us your saving help.

All Alleluia, alleluia.

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

Jesus said, 'But in those days, after that suffering, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.

Then they will see "the Son of Man coming in clouds" with great power and glory. Then he will send out the angels, and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven.

'From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that he is near, at the very gates. Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

'But about that day or hour no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. Beware, keep alert; for you do not know when the time will come. It is like a man going on a journey, when he leaves home and puts his slaves in charge, each with his work, and commands the doorkeeper to be on the watch. Therefore, keep awake - for you do not know when the master of the house will come, in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or at dawn, or else he may find you asleep when he comes suddenly. And what I say to you I say to all: Keep awake.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

SERMON Canon Paul Smith

INTERCESSIONS led by Maureen Pappin

HYMN 26

MOTET Vigilate, William Byrd (1540-1623)

Vigilate, nescitis enim quando Dominus veniat, sero an media nocte, an gallicantu, an mane.

Vigilate ergo, ne, cum venerit repente, inveniat vos dormientes.

Quod autem dico vobis, omnibus dico; vigilate

Stay awake, because you do not know when the Lord of the house is coming; at evening or midnight, at cock-crow or in the morning.

Stay awake, therefore, lest when he comes suddenly he find you asleep.

And what I say to you I say to all: stay awake. Mark 13.35-37

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

O Lord our God,

make us watchful and keep us faithful

as we await the coming of your Son our Lord;

that, when he shall appear,

he may not find us sleeping in sin

but active in his service and joyful in his praise;

through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ANTHEM While the careless world is sleeping, Francis Jackson (b.1917)

While the careless world is sleeping, blest are the servants who are keeping Watch,
according to his word,
for the coming of the Lord.

Heard ye not your master's warning,
he will come before the morning,
unexpected, undescried,
watch ye for him open eyed.

Teach us so to watch, Lord Jesus,
from the sleep of sin release us:
swift to hear thee let us be,
meet to enter in with thee.

God who with all good provides us,
God who made, who saved, who guides us,
Praise we with the heavenly host,
Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

It is with great sadness that we heard the news that Peter died peacefully on 25 November. Peter made an enormous contribution to the life of our Diocese and Cathedral over many years and he will be greatly missed. His funeral service will take place at the Cathedral on Friday 8 December at 11.30am and all are welcome. We have assured Lesley and their family of our love and prayers.

Advent Angels here until Epiphany

Farewell to Alex Chelaru

Our good friend Alex Chelaru, who has been worshipping here for ten years is returning home to Romania on Wednesday. During that time he has worked in and around Guildford, most recently as part of the team renewing the east end of the Cathedral roof. He has held a number of exhibitions of his art and the icons he has written. We give thanks to God for his fellowship and send our greetings to his family and friends in north-east Romania.

GUILDFORD

GUILDFORD CATHEDRAL is a place of prayer, reflection, work and celebration, held in particular affection by the many thousands of people who helped build it by buying a brick. There is much to offer to visitors and to those who are looking for a church community to call home. All regular weekday and Sunday services are open to all. The beautiful building and the excellent choral tradition contribute to making our Cathedral a place to which, once visited, you will want to return. As well as the rhythm of daily worship we maintain an exciting programme of arts, events, lectures, workshops, exhibitions and concerts.

The Cathedral is a centre for worship and mission to support the ministry of the Bishop in faith and engagement. The Cathedral is a sacred space and an open community of people who together engage with God and the wider world, for the common good. It is a focus and resource for the whole community: a place of daily choral worship, a space for stillness and prayer, a place of pilgrimage and a venue for concerts, art and education.
