HYMN 87

COLLECT

Eternal Father,

who at the baptism of Jesus

didst reveal him to be thy Son,

anointing him with the Holy Spirit:

grant that we, being born again by water and the Spirit,

may be faithful to our calling as thine adopted children;

through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord,

who liveth and reigneth with thee,

in the unity of the Holy Spirit,

one God, now and for ever. Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT READING Genesis 1.1-5 read by Sarah Hawken

In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters. Then God said, 'Let there be light'; and there was light. And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

PSALM 29

Bring unto the Lord, O ye mighty, bring young rams unto the Lord :

ascribe unto the Lord worship and strength.

Give the Lord the honour due unto his Name :

worship the Lord with holy worship.

It is the Lord, that commandeth the waters :

it is the glorious God, that maketh the thunder.

It is the Lord, that ruleth the sea; the voice of the Lord is mighty in operation :
the voice of the Lord is a glorious voice.

The voice of the Lord breaketh the cedar-trees :
yea, the Lord breaketh the cedars of Libanus.

He maketh them also to skip like a calf :

Libanus also, and Sirion, like a young unicorn.

The voice of the Lord divideth the flames of fire;
the voice of the Lord shaketh the wilderness :

yea, the Lord shaketh the wilderness of Cades.

The voice of the Lord maketh the hinds to bring forth young,
and discovereth the thick bushes :

in his temple doth every man speak of his honour.

The Lord sitteth above the water-flood :

and the Lord remaineth a King for ever.

The Lord shall give strength unto his people :

the Lord shall give his people the blessing of peace.

NEW TESTAMENT READING Acts 19.1-7 read by Rachel Impey

While Apollos was in Corinth, Paul passed through the inland regions and came to Ephesus, where he found some disciples. He said to them, 'Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you became believers?' They replied, 'No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit.' Then he said, 'Into what then were you baptized?' They answered, 'Into John's baptism.' Paul said, 'John baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people to believe in the one who was to come after him, that is, in Jesus.' On hearing this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. When Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they spoke in tongues and prophesied—altogether there were about twelve of them.

HYMN 85

GOSPEL READING Mark 1.4-11

Choir Alleluia, alleluia.

All Alleluia, alleluia.

Choir John saw Jesus coming towards him, and said:

This is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.

All Alleluia, alleluia.

The Holy Gospel is written in the first chapter of the gospel according to Saint Mark, beginning at the fourth verse

John the baptizer appeared in the wilderness, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. And people from the whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem were going out to him, and were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. Now John was clothed with camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. He proclaimed, 'The one who is more powerful than I is coming after me; I am not worthy to stoop down and untie the thong of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.' In those days Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. And just as he was coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens torn apart and the Spirit descending like a dove on him. And a voice came from heaven, 'You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

SERMON The Reverend Neil Vigers

MOTET From the rising of the sun, Frederick Ouseley (1825-1889)

From the rising of the sun
unto the going down of the same
my name shall be great, among the Gentiles;
and in ev'ry place incense shall be offer'd up unto my name:
for my name shall be great among the heathen,
thus saith the Lord!

ANTHEM Rejoice and be merry, English traditional

Rejoice and be merry in songs and in mirth;
O praise our Redeemer, all mortals on earth!
For this is the birthday of Jesus our King,
who brought us salvation - his praises we sing!

A heavenly vision appeared in the sky;
vast numbers of angels the shepherds did spy,
proclaiming the birthday of Jesus our King,
who brought us salvation - his praises we sing!

And soon in the sky a bright star did appear,
which led the wise men from the east to draw near;
they found the Messiah, Christ Jesus our King,
who brought us salvation - his praises we sing!

They came and they offered myrrh, incense and gold -
for God's gracious purpose these treasures foretold.
Then worshipped for ever be Jesus our King,
who brought us salvation - his praises we sing!

ANTHEM The Three Kings, Peter Cornelius (1824-1874)

Three Kings from Persian lands afar
to Jordan follow the pointing star:
and this the quest of the travellers three,
where the new-born King of the Jews may be.
Full royal gifts they bear for the King;
gold, incense, myrrh are their offering.

How brightly shines the morning star!
With grace and truth from heaven afar
our Jesse tree now bloweth.
The star shines out with a steadfast ray;
the kings to Bethlehem make their way,
and there in worship they bend the knee,
as Mary's child in her lap they see;
their royal gifts they show to the King;
gold, incense, myrrh are their offering.

Of Jacob's stem and David's line,
for thee, my bridegroom, King divine,
my soul with love o'erfloweth.

Thou child of man, lo, to Bethlehem
the kings are travelling, travel with them!
The star of mercy, the star of grace,
shall lead thy heart to its resting place.
Gold, incense, myrrh thou canst not bring;
offer thy heart to the infant King.

Thy word, Jesu, inly feeds us,
rightly leads us, life bestowing.
Praise, O praise such love o'erflowing.

Contactless donation trial

If you're anything like the Queen, you may not carry cash on you. To this end we're excited to be one of 12 cathedrals taking part in the Church of England's contactless donation box trial. You can find it at the main West end entrance to the Cathedral, where a quick tap of your contactless card will make a £5 donation towards our work and ministry here. Simple! Please do help make this three month trial a success and encourage others to take this opportunity to support us. A huge thank you to all volunteers from the Cathedral staff

Thank you to all the volunteers who have tirelessly helped this year. We truly value your support and would like to wish each and every one of you a very happy Christmas and best wishes for 2018.

Gifts in Wills: a New Year's resolution?

We are grateful to those in our Cathedral community who have left a Gift in their Will to the Cathedral. These gifts will stand us in good stead for years to come. As a result of some recent work we're aware of far more gifts than previously thought and this is crucial to the Cathedral for its future planning. If one of your 2018 resolutions is to consider leaving a Gift in your Will then the Faith in the Future leaflets may assist your thinking. Do contact the Fundraising Team if you have further questions (fundraising@guildford-cathedral.org or 01483 547884).

Come and enjoy a Tour

The Cathedral is open every day for visitors and pilgrims and especially for those who feel they know the Cathedral well. There are a variety of self-guided tours which focus on particular aspects of our wonderful building including a self-guided pilgrimage. Our experienced and friendly Guides provide regular scheduled tours and tickets for these can be obtained from the Cathedral Shop on the day or booked on-line through the website. GUILDFORD
CATHEDRAL

GUILDFORD CATHEDRAL is a place of prayer, reflection, work and celebration, held in particular affection by the many thousands of people who helped build it by buying a brick. There is much to offer to visitors and to those who are looking for a church community to call home. All regular weekday and Sunday services are open to all. The beautiful building and the excellent choral tradition contribute to making our Cathedral a place to which, once visited, you will want to return. As well as the rhythm of daily worship we maintain an exciting programme of arts, events, lectures, workshops, exhibitions and concerts.

The Cathedral is a centre for worship and mission to support the ministry of the Bishop in faith and engagement. The Cathedral is a sacred space and an open community of people who together engage with God and the wider world, for the common good. It is a focus and resource for the whole community: a place of daily choral worship, a space for stillness and prayer, a place of pilgrimage and a venue for concerts, art and education.
