LENT PROSE

COLLECT

Almighty God,

whose most dear Son went not up to joy but first suffered pain,

and entered not into glory before he was crucified:

mercifully grant that we, walking in the way of the cross,

may find it none other than the way of life and peace;

through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord,

who liveth and reigneth with thee,

in the unity of the Holy Spirit,

one God, now and for ever. Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT READING Exodus 20.1-17 read by Janet Lawson

Then God spoke all these words: I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery; you shall have no other gods before me.

You shall not make for yourself an idol, whether in the form of anything that is in heaven above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth. You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I the Lord your God am a jealous God, punishing children for the iniquity of parents, to the third and the fourth generation of those who reject me, but showing steadfast love to the thousandth generation of those who love me and keep my commandments.

You shall not make wrongful use of the name of the Lord your God, for the Lord will not acquit anyone who misuses his name. Remember the sabbath day, and keep it holy. For six days you shall labour and do all your work. But the seventh day is a sabbath to the Lord your God; you shall not do any work - you, your son or your daughter, your male or female slave, your livestock, or the alien resident in your towns. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but rested the seventh day; therefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day and consecrated it. Honour your father and your mother, so that your days may be long in the land that the Lord your God is giving you. You shall not murder. You shall not commit adultery. You shall not steal. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbour. You shall not covet your neighbour's house; you shall not covet your neighbour's wife, or male or female slave, or ox, or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbour.

PSALM 19.7-14

- 7 The law of the Lord is an undefiled law, converting the soul :
the testimony of the Lord is sure, and giveth wisdom unto the simple.
- 8 The statutes of the Lord are right, and rejoice the heart :
the commandment of the Lord is pure, and giveth light unto the eyes.
- 9 The fear of the Lord is clean, and endureth for ever :
the judgements of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether.
- 10 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold :
sweeter also than honey, and the honey-comb.
- 11 Moreover, by them is thy servant taught :
and in keeping of them there is great reward.
- 12 Who can tell how oft he offendeth :
O cleanse thou me from my secret faults.
- 13 Keep thy servant also from presumptuous sins,
lest they get the dominion over me :
so shall I be undefiled, and innocent from the great offence.
- 14 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart :
be always acceptable in thy sight,

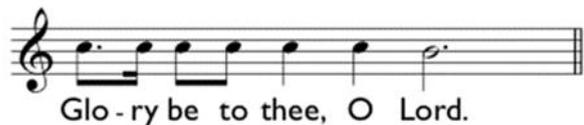

NEW TESTAMENT READING | Corinthians I.18-25 read by Jacob Smart

For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. For it is written, 'I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the discernment of the discerning I will thwart.' Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God decided, through the foolishness of our proclamation, to save those who believe. For Jews demand signs and Greeks desire wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling-block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.

HYMN 448

GOSPEL READING John 2.13-22

The Holy Gospel is written in the second chapter of the Gospel according to Saint John, beginning at the thirteenth verse.

The Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. In the temple he found people selling cattle, sheep, and doves, and the money-changers seated at their tables. Making a whip of cords, he drove all of them out of the temple, both the sheep and the cattle. He also poured out the coins of the money-changers and overturned their tables. He told those who were selling the doves, 'Take these things out of here! Stop making my Father's house a market-place!' His disciples remembered that it was written, 'Zeal for your house will consume me.' The Jews then said to him, 'What sign can you show us for doing this?' Jesus answered them, 'Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.' The Jews then said, 'This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and will you raise it up in three days?' But he was speaking of the temple of his body. After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this; and they believed the scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

hast redeemed us.

O Lord, heal me, for my bones are vexed.
My soul is also sore troubled:

The Lord is good unto them that wait for him,

It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the Lord.
It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.
For the Lord will not cast off for ever:
but though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion
according to the multitude of his mercies.
For he doth not afflict willingly, nor grieve the children of men.

Come and enjoy a Tour

The Cathedral is open every day for visitors and pilgrims. There are a variety of self-guided tours which focus on particular aspects of our wonderful building including a self-guided pilgrimage. For children there are new trails and Explorer Bags with everything they need to enjoy their visit. Our experienced and friendly Guides provide regular scheduled tours and tickets for these can be obtained from the Cathedral Shop on the day or booked on-line through the website. Book Launch Invitation - Thursday 15 March 6.30 pm

Regular worshippers at the Cathedral may know that, through his work at the University, Canon Andrew has been reflecting with academics from various disciplines on the subject of sleep. This has led to his work on Christian theology and sleep which is published this month by Jessica Kingsley Publishers. If you would like to come to the book's launch in the University on Thursday 15 March from 6.30 to 7.30pm (post-Evensong and pre-Compline) please go to

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/theosomnia-book-launch-tickets-42792142450>
Copies of the book will be available on the night (at a 10% discount: full price is £45), from the Cathedral shop or can be ordered through Canon Andrew (canonandrew@guildford-cathedral.org). If you want a taste of the sorts of areas the book covers you can go to <https://theosomnia.blogspot.co.uk/>

Stainer's Crucifixion on Palm Sunday - Sunday 25 March 7.00pm

We are delighted to be welcoming Barry Rose back to Guildford Cathedral as he celebrates his 60th anniversary of working with the BBC Singers. He will be conducting Stainer's Crucifixion in a live broadcast on BBC Radio. The Organist will be Malcolm Archer and the BBC Singers will be joined by some of our own fabulous choristers. This is a BBC production and not a service and the Cathedral has been made an allocation of tickets for the performance. If you would like a ticket please contact Carolyn Howard-Jones on 01483 547868 (liturgymusic@guildford-cathedral.org). We've been told that possession of a ticket does not guarantee admission. Seats are allocated on a first come first served basis. Doors open at 6.15pm. Please consider joining us for what will be a wonderful way to commence our corporate journey through Holy Week toward the glories of Easter.

2020 visit to Oberammergau

The Community Committee has received a number of enquiries as to whether we shall be arranging a visit to Oberammergau to see the Passion plays in 2020. This event occurs every 10 years so planning ahead is essential. If you are interested please express an interest to Linda Sharpin on 01483 839 561 or linda@sharpin.com so we can assess the best way to proceed.

Guildford Pilgrimage to Walsingham 2018

For our pilgrimage to Walsingham, we have to make firm bookings with the Hospitality Department at the Shrine by the weekend before Holy Week. Therefore, if you wish to make a firm booking, please let Richard North know as soon as possible. He will then give you a Booking Form which you will be asked to complete and return with a cheque for £30 per person to cover the deposit required to secure the booking. Contact Richard by telephone; 01252 794802 or email richard.north456@btinternet.com We look forward to hearing from you very shortly.

GUILDFORD
CATHEDRAL

GUILDFORD CATHEDRAL is a place of prayer, reflection, work and celebration, held in particular affection by the many thousands of people who helped build it by buying a brick. There is much to offer to visitors and to those who are looking for a church community to call home. All regular weekday and Sunday services are open to all. The beautiful building and the excellent choral tradition contribute to making our Cathedral a place to which, once visited, you will want to return. As well as the rhythm of daily worship we maintain an exciting programme of arts, events, lectures, workshops, exhibitions and concerts.

The Cathedral is a centre for worship and mission to support the ministry of the Bishop in faith and engagement. The Cathedral is a sacred space and an open community of people who together engage with God and the wider world, for the common good. It is a focus and resource for the whole community: a place of daily choral worship, a space for stillness and prayer, a place of pilgrimage and a venue for concerts, art and education.
