HYMN 398

COLLECT

O God, the strength of all them that put their trust in thee, mercifully accept our prayers;
and because through the weakness of our mortal nature
we can do no good thing without thee,
grant us the help of thy grace,
that in keeping of thy commandments we may please thee,
both in will and deed;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

OLD TESTAMENT READING Deuteronomy 5.12-15 read by Sarah Tapp

Observe the sabbath day and keep it holy, as the Lord your God commanded you. For six days you shall labour and do all your work. But the seventh day is a sabbath to the Lord your God; you shall not do any work – you, or your son or your daughter, or your male or female slave, or your ox or your donkey, or any of your livestock, or the resident alien in your towns, so that your male and female slave may rest as well as you. Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the Lord your God brought you out from there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm; therefore the Lord your God commanded you to keep the sabbath day.

PSALM 81.1-10

Sing we merrily unto God our strength :

make a cheerful noise unto the God of Jacob.

Take the psalm, bring hither the tabret :

the merry harp with the lute.

Blow up the trumpet in the new-moon :

even in the time appointed, and upon our solemn feast-day.

For this was made a statute for Israel :

and a law of the God of Jacob.

This he ordained in Joseph for a testimony :

when he came out of the land of Egypt, and had heard a strange language.

I eased his shoulder from the burden :

and his hands were delivered from making the pots.

Thou calledst upon me in troubles, and I delivered thee :

and heard thee what time as the storm fell upon thee.

I proved thee also :

at the waters of strife.

Hear, O my people, and I will assure thee, O Israel :

if thou wilt hearken unto me,

There shall no strange god be in thee :

neither shalt thou worship any other god.

NEW TESTAMENT READING 2 Corinthians 4.5-12

read by Jonathan Neil-Smith

For we do not proclaim ourselves; we proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord and ourselves as your slaves for Jesus' sake. For it is the God who said, 'Let light shine out of darkness', who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us. We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed; always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be made visible in our bodies. For while we live, we are always being given up to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus may be made visible in our mortal flesh. So death is at work in us, but life in you.

HYMN 416 (tune i)

GOSPEL READING Mark 2.23-3.6

The Holy Gospel is written in the second chapter of the Gospel according to Saint Mark, beginning at the twenty third verse.

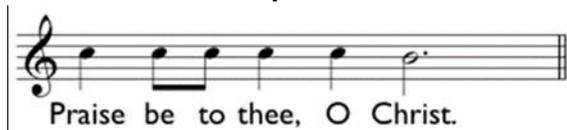

Glo-ry be to thee, O Lord.

One sabbath Jesus was going through the cornfields; and as they made their way his disciples began to pluck heads of grain. The Pharisees said to him, 'Look, why are they doing what is not lawful on the sabbath?' And he said to them, 'Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were hungry and in need of food? He entered the house of God, when Abiathar was high priest, and ate the bread of the Presence, which it is not lawful for any but the priests to eat, and he gave some to his companions.’ Then he said to them, ‘The sabbath was made for humankind, and not humankind for the sabbath; so the Son of Man is lord even of the sabbath.’

Again he entered the synagogue, and a man was there who had a withered hand. They watched him to see whether he would cure him on the sabbath, so that they might accuse him. And he said to the man who had the withered hand, ‘Come forward.’ Then he said to them, ‘Is it lawful to do good or to do harm on the sabbath, to save life or to kill?’ But they were silent. He looked around at them with anger; he was grieved at their hardness of heart and said to the man, ‘Stretch out your hand.’ He stretched it out, and his hand was restored. The Pharisees went out and immediately conspired with the Herodians against him, how to destroy him.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

SERMON The Very Reverend Dianna Gwilliams

MOTET O hearken thou Edward Elgar (1857-1934)

O hearken Thou unto the voice of my calling, my King and my God: for unto thee will I make my prayer.
My voice shalt thou hear betimes, O Lord:
early in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee,
and will look up.

O Thou, the central orb of righteous love,
Pure beam of the most High, eternal Light
Of this our wintry world, Thy radiance bright Awakes new joy in faith, hope soars above.

Come, quickly come, and let thy glory shine,
Gilding our darksome heaven with rays Divine.

Thy saints with holy lustre round Thee move,
As stars about thy throne, set in the height
Of God's ordaining counsel, as Thy sight Gives measured grace to each, Thy power to prove.

Let Thy bright beams disperse the gloom of sin,
Our nature all shall feel eternal day
In fellowship with thee, transforming day
To souls erewhile unclean, now pure within. Amen.

Could you join our Schools and Family Volunteers team?

Every year the Cathedral welcomes hundreds of children from schools across the diocese to take part in lively seasonal workshops to help them learn about Advent, Lent, Easter and Pentecost and it also provides special sessions, such as celebrating the centenary of World War I. The schools' team also runs our popular family fun days during the holidays to encourage young visitors to engage with our community in a Christian setting. We are currently seeking new people to join our team of wonderful volunteers who lead teaching sessions, assist with crafts, help with preparing resources and with refreshments, particularly in the autumn term. If you would like to find out more please contact gill@guildford-cathedral.org. We would love to tell you more.

Cathedral's Coins Scheme

A single donation from Horsell has raised £123, lifting us to £17,276. Travellers have taken currency for Canada, Viet Nam, Japan and the USA. Coin sold by weight has brought in £47. Many thanks to all our helpers. Donations of any currency, however small, however old, are always welcome.

Cathedral Sound System

There was a malfunction of the system on Saturday 26 May, which was again a result of the fault on the Analogue Digital Converter, rectification of which will be effected once parts arrive. In the meantime, the engineer has restored most of the system with the exception of the rear of the Nave. The working group next meets with the contractor on Tuesday.

GUILDFORD
CATHEDRAL

GUILDFORD CATHEDRAL is a place of prayer, reflection, work and celebration, held in particular affection by the many thousands of people who helped build it by buying a brick. There is much to offer to visitors and to those who are looking for a church community to call home. All regular weekday and Sunday services are open to all. The beautiful building and the excellent choral tradition contribute to making our Cathedral a place to which, once visited, you will want to return. As well as the rhythm of daily worship we maintain an exciting programme of arts, events, lectures, workshops, exhibitions and concerts.

The Cathedral is a centre for worship and mission to support the ministry of the Bishop in faith and engagement. The Cathedral is a sacred space and an open community of people who together engage with God and the wider world, for the common good. It is a focus and resource for the whole community: a place of daily choral worship, a space for stillness and prayer, a place of pilgrimage and a venue for concerts, art and education.
