HYMN 619

COLLECT

Almighty God, you have broken the tyranny of sin and have sent the Spirit of your Son into our hearts whereby we call you Father:

give us grace to dedicate our freedom to your service, that we and all creation may be brought to the glorious liberty of the children of God; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

OLD TESTAMENT READING Ezekiel 17.22-end read by Janet Lawson

Thus says the Lord God: I myself will take a sprig from the lofty top of a cedar; I will set it out. I will break off a tender one from the topmost of its young twigs; I myself will plant it on a high and lofty mountain. On the mountain height of Israel I will plant it, in order that it may produce boughs and bear fruit, and become a noble cedar. Under it every kind of bird will live; in the shade of its branches will nest winged creatures of every kind. All the trees of the field shall know that I am the Lord. I bring low the high tree, I make high the low tree; I dry up the green tree and make the dry tree flourish. I the Lord have spoken; I will accomplish it.

PSALM 92.1-8

You, O Lord, shall be ex - alt-ed for e-ver more.

It is a good thing to give thanks to the Lord :

And to sing praises to your Name O most High;

To tell of your love early in the morning :

And of your faithfulness in the night-time;

Upon the ten-stringed instrument; upon the harp :

and to the melody of the lyre.

For you, Lord, have made me glad by your acts :

And I sing aloud at the works of your hands.

O Lord how glorious are your works : Your thoughts are very deep. Response

The senseless do not know : Nor do the fools understand.

That though the wicked sprout like grass;

and all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered :

It is only to be destroyed for ever;

but you, O Lord, shall be exalted for evermore. Response

NEW TESTAMENT READING 2 Corinthians 5.6-10,14-17

read by John Mitchell

We are always confident; even though we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord - for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yes, we do have confidence, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. For all of us must appear before the judgement seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense for what has been done in the body, whether good or evil. For the love of Christ urges us on, because we are convinced that one has died for all; therefore all have died. And he died for all, so that those who live might live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised for them. From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way. So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new!

GOSPEL READING Mark 4.26-34

Al - le-lu - ia, al-le-lu - ia.

Choir Alleluia, alleluia.

All Alleluia, alleluia.

Choir I call you friends, says the Lord, because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father.

All Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

Glo - ry to you, O Lord.

Jesus also said, 'The kingdom of God is as if someone would scatter seed on the ground, and would sleep and rise night and day, and the seed would sprout and grow, he does not know how. The earth produces of itself, first the stalk, then the head, then the full grain in the head. But when the grain is ripe, at once he goes in with his sickle, because the harvest has come.' He also said, 'With what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable will we use for it? It is like a mustard seed, which, when sown upon the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth; yet when it is sown it grows up and becomes the greatest of all shrubs, and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the air can make nests in its shade.' With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it; he did not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything in private to his disciples.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Alleluia, alleluia.

SERMON Canon Paul Smith

INTERCESSIONS led by Sarah Tapp

HYMN 393

MOTET Tantum ergo Maurice Duruflé (1902-1986)

Tantum ergo sacramentum
Veneremur cernui,
Et antiquum documentum
Novo cedat ritui
Praestet fides supplementum
Sensuum defectui.

Genitori genitoque
Laus et jubilatio,
Salus honor virtus quoque
Sit et benedictio.
Procedenti abutroque
Compar sit laudatio. Amen.

*Therefore we, before him bending, this great Sacrament revere;
types and shadows have their ending,
for the newer rite is here;
faith, our outward sense befriending, makes our inward vision clear.*

*Glory let us give, and blessing to the Father and the Son, honor, might and praise addressing,
while eternal ages run;
ever too his love confessing,
who from Both with Both is One. Amen.*

Words: Thomas Aquinas (1225-1274)

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

God our saviour, look on this wounded world in pity and in power; hold us fast to your promises of peace won for us by your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

READINGS Deuteronomy 10.12-11.1; Acts 23.12-35

ANTHEM Beatus vir, Claudio Monteverdi (1567-1643)

Beatus vir, qui timet Dominum:
In mandatis eius rolet nimis.
Potens in terra erit semen eius;
Generatio rectorum benedicetur.
Gloria et divitiae in domo eius;
Et justitia eius manet in saeculum saeculi.
Exortum est in tenebris lumen rectis:
Misericors, et miserator et justus.
Jucundus homo qui miseretur et commodat.
Disponet sermones suos in iudicio:
Quia in aeternum non commovebitur.
In memoria aeterna erit justus.
Ab auditione mala non timebit.
Paratum cor eius sperare in Domino;
Confirmatum est, cor eius:
Non commovebitur,
Donec despiciat inimicos suos.
Dispersit, dedit pauperibus:
Justitia eius manet in saeculum saeculi,
Cornu eius exaltabitur in gloria.
Peccator videbit, et irascetur;
Dentibus suis fremet et tabescet.
Desiderium peccatorum peribit.
Gloria Patri et Filio: et Spiritui Sancto:
Sicut erat in principio et nunc et semper:
et in saecula saeculorum.. Amen

*Blessed is the man who fears the lord:
He delights greatly in his commandments.
His seed will be mightily on earth;
The generation of the upright will be blessed.
Wealth and riches are in his house;
And his righteousness endures for ever and ever.
Unto the upright there arises light in the darkness:
He is gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous.
Good is the man who is full of compassion and lends.
He will guide his affairs with discretion:
Because he will not be moved for ever.
The righteous will be in everlasting remembrance.
He will not be afraid of evil tidings.
His heart is fixed, trusting in the lord;
His heart is established:
He will not be moved,
Until he gazes at his enemies.
He has dispersed, he has given to the poor:
His righteousness endures for ever and ever,
The strength of his soul will be exalted with honour.
The sinner will see it, and will be grieved;
He will gnash with his teeth, and melt away.
Glory be to the Father and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost:
as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be:
world without end. Amen*

PSALM 39

RESPONSES Bernard Rose (1916-1996)

CANTICLES Evening Service in D, Edward Bairstow (1874-1946)

READINGS Jeremiah 7.1-16; Romans 9.14-26

ANTHEM Though I speak with the tongues of men, Edward Bairstow (1874-1946)

Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal. And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; And though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing. And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: Now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

And now abideth faith, hope and charity, but the greatest of these is charity.

text: 1 Corinthians 13:1-4, 7-8, 12-13

Congratulations to John Mitchell

We are delighted to congratulate John who is to be appointed Reader (LLM) Emeritus by the Bishop of Guildford. This honour is in recognition of 21 years service as a Licensed Lay Minister in our Diocese. The award service will take place on Saturday 23 June at 5.30pm at St Paul's, Dorking and all are welcome to attend. The Cathedral Community will mark this award during our Cathedral Eucharist on 29 July.

Could you join our Schools and Family Volunteers team?

Every year the Cathedral welcomes hundreds of children from schools across the diocese to take part in lively seasonal workshops to help them learn about Advent, Lent, Easter and Pentecost and it also provides special sessions, such as celebrating the centenary of World War I. The schools' team also runs our popular family fun days during the holidays to encourage young visitors to engage with our community in a Christian setting. We are currently seeking new people to join our team of wonderful volunteers who lead teaching sessions, assist with crafts, help with preparing resources and with refreshments, particularly in the autumn term. If you would like to find out more please contact gill@guildford-cathedral.org. We would love to tell you more.

Canon Andrew Bishop

Canon Andrew will be Licensed as Priest-in-Charge of Croydon Minster on Monday 3 September at 8.00pm. We are planning to organise a coach from the Cathedral to Croydon for the service. Please sign the sheet on the Welcome Desk if you would like to book a place on the coach. Andrew's final service at the Cathedral will be the Cathedral Eucharist on Sunday 15 July. There will be refreshments and a presentation after the service. We are collecting donations towards a thank-you gift for Andrew and his family. If you would like to contribute please bring your donation in a sealed envelope and post it into the Cathedral Office or leave with the Stewards on a Sunday.

God & The Big Bang (GATBB) – Wednesday 4 July 7 to 9pm

Following the highly successful event at Guildford Cathedral in January, the GATBB team from Manchester Cathedral will be returning for an engaging evening event on science and faith. Offering a keynote talk, discussions with their team of science-faith communicators, and a Q&A session, the event will include going back to the Big Bang, trying out mind boggling illusions with a science magician, and exploring how Artificial Intelligence shapes our world today. The evening is suitable for anyone with an interest in science, philosophy and debate, particularly those pursuing further studies and interested in the origins of our world. Details on our website, contact louise@guildford-cathedral.org for more information. Tickets £10, (students £5), booking essential via the cathedral box office <https://www.guildford-cathedral.org/events/boxoffice/263>

GUILDFORD
CATHEDRAL

GUILDFORD CATHEDRAL is a place of prayer, reflection, work and celebration, held in particular affection by the many thousands of people who helped build it by buying a brick. There is much to offer to visitors and to those who are looking for a church community to call home. All regular weekday and Sunday services are open to all. The beautiful building and the excellent choral tradition contribute to making our Cathedral a place to which, once visited, you will want to return. As well as the rhythm of daily worship we maintain an exciting programme of arts, events, lectures, workshops, exhibitions and concerts.

The Cathedral is a centre for worship and mission to support the ministry of the Bishop in faith and engagement. The Cathedral is a sacred space and an open community of people who together engage with God and the wider world, for the common good. It is a focus and resource for the whole community: a place of daily choral worship, a space for stillness and prayer, a place of pilgrimage and a venue for concerts, art and education.
