HYMN 627 (tune 227)

COLLECT

Merciful God,
you have prepared for those who love you
such good things as pass our understanding:
pour into our hearts such love toward you
that we, loving you in all things and above all things,
may obtain your promises,
which exceed all that we can desire;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

OLD TESTAMENT READING Ezekiel 2.1-5 read by Sarah Hawken

He said to me: O mortal, stand up on your feet, and I will speak with you. And when he spoke to me, a spirit entered into me and set me on my feet; and I heard him speaking to me. He said to me, Mortal, I am sending you to the people of Israel, to a nation of rebels who have rebelled against me; they and their ancestors have transgressed against me to this very day. The descendants are impudent and stubborn. I am sending you to them, and you shall say to them, 'Thus says the Lord God.' Whether they hear or refuse to hear (for they are a rebellious house), they shall know that there has been a prophet among them.

PSALM 123

Our eyes wait up - on the Lord our God.

To you I lift up my eyes :

To you that are enthroned in the heavens.

As the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master;
or as the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress :

So our eyes wait upon the Lord our God;
until he have mercy upon us. Response

Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy upon us :
For we have had more than enough of contempt.
Our soul has had more than enough of the scorn of the arrogant :
And of the contempt of the proud. Response

NEW TESTAMENT READING 2 Corinthians 12.2-10
read by Donald Thompson

I know a person in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven – whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows. And I know that such a person – whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows – was caught up into Paradise and heard things that are not to be told, that no mortal is permitted to repeat. On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except of my weaknesses. But if I wish to boast, I will not be a fool, for I will be speaking the truth. But I refrain from it, so that no one may think better of me than what is seen in me or heard from me, even considering the exceptional character of the revelations. Therefore, to keep me from being too elated, a thorn was given to me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, to keep me from being too elated. Three times I appealed to the Lord about this, that it would leave me, but he said to me, ‘My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.’ So, I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me. Therefore I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities for the sake of Christ; for whenever I am weak, then I am strong.

GOSPEL READING Mark 6.1-13

Choir Alleluia, alleluia.

All Alleluia, alleluia.

Choir The Word was made flesh and dwelt among us.
To all who did accept him, he gave power to become children of God.

All Alleluia, alleluia.

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

Jesus left that place and came to his home town, and his disciples followed him. On the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astounded. They said, 'Where did this man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands! Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?' And they took offence at him. Then Jesus said to them, 'Prophets are not without honour, except in their home town, and among their own kin, and in their own house.' And he could do no deed of power there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and cured them. And he was amazed at their unbelief.

Then he went about among the villages teaching. He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. He ordered them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts; but to wear sandals and not to put on two tunics. He said to them, 'Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place. If any place will not welcome you and they refuse to hear you, as you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them.' So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent. They cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Alleluia, alleluia.

SERMON The Very Reverend Dianna Gwilliams

HYMN 606

MOTET I will lift up mine eyes, Paul Bryan (b. 1967)

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh even from the Lord, who hath made heaven and earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved, and he that keepeth thee will not sleep. Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber, nor sleep.

you have led us to the living water:
refresh and sustain us
as we go forward on our journey,

ANTHEM How lovely are thy dwellings (Ein Deutsches Requiem, Op.45), Johannes Brahms (1833-1897)

How lovely are Thy dwellings fair, O Lord of Hosts.
My soul ever longeth and fainteth sore for the blest courts of the Lord:
My heart and flesh do cry to the living God.
O blest are they that in Thy house are dwelling:
They ever praise Thee, O Lord, for evermore.

Could you help visitors to get the best view in Surrey?

The Cathedral offers two scheduled tower tours most Saturdays between April and November and popularity of these is growing. Tower Tour Guides lead the tours up to the top of the tower where you can see a fantastic view of the surrounding area. The tours last for about 45 minutes. There are 249 steps to the top and guides should be comfortable with heights and stairs. Generally all guides are on duty once a month. If you'd like to learn more about this wonderful opportunity please contact Gill Thorpe on 01483 547885 or email gill@guildford-cathedral.org.

Could you join our Schools and Family Volunteers team?

Every year the Cathedral welcomes hundreds of children from schools across the diocese to take part in lively seasonal workshops to help them learn about Advent, Lent, Easter and Pentecost and it also provides special sessions, such as celebrating the centenary of World War I. The schools' team also runs our popular family fun days during the holidays to encourage young visitors to engage with our community in a Christian setting. We are currently seeking new people to join our team of wonderful volunteers who lead teaching sessions, assist with crafts, help with preparing resources and with refreshments, particularly in the autumn term. If you would like to find out more please contact gill@guildford-cathedral.org. We would love to tell you more.

Bell ringing contest

Each year our bell ringers enter a team for the National 12-Bell Striking Contest. Having qualified in an eliminator contest at Southwell Minster in March they then took part in the final at the University Church of Great St Mary in Cambridge last Saturday, 23 June. They were up against nine other teams, from Birmingham, Bristol, Cambridge, Exeter, Leeds, Melbourne (Derbyshire), St Paul's Cathedral and two other London-based teams. The standard of ringing was very high throughout and our team scored a very good 72%. Although this was the lowest score, only 11 percentage points separated teams 3 to 10. The contest was won by Birmingham, with the Cambridge team coming a close second on their own bells. In addition to the participants, a great many other ringers attended to listen to the ringing and enjoy one of the great ringing occasions of the year in perfect weather. In 2021 we will host the finals of the Contest and we look forward to welcoming teams from all over the country.

Christmas Concert

The Music Department is putting on an exciting Christmas Concert on Saturday 8 December 2018. Details to follow, but for now we are hoping to secure some corporate sponsorship to help cover the costs of putting this on. If you are in a position to enable your own company to sponsor this, or deal with organisations who may wish to have this opportunity, please contact our Head of Fundraising, Susan Barry: susan@guildford-cathedral.org or 01483 547878. Thank you.

GUILDFORD
CATHEDRAL

GUILDFORD CATHEDRAL is a place of prayer, reflection, work and celebration, held in particular affection by the many thousands of people who helped build it by buying a brick. There is much to offer to visitors and to those who are looking for a church community to call home. All regular weekday and Sunday services are open to all. The beautiful building and the excellent choral tradition contribute to making our Cathedral a place to which, once visited, you will want to return. As well as the rhythm of daily worship we maintain an exciting programme of arts, events, lectures, workshops, exhibitions and concerts.

The Cathedral is a centre for worship and mission to support the ministry of the Bishop in faith and engagement. The Cathedral is a sacred space and an open community of people who together engage with God and the wider world, for the common good. It is a focus and resource for the whole community: a place of daily choral worship, a space for stillness and prayer, a place of pilgrimage and a venue for concerts, art and education.
