COLLECT

Almighty God,
whose Son restored Mary Magdalene
to health of mind and body
and called her to be a witness to his resurrection:
forgive our sins and heal us by your grace,
that we may serve you in the power of his risen life;
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

OLD TESTAMENT READING Song of Solomon 3.1-4 read by Rachel Impey

Upon my bed at night I sought him whom my soul loves; I sought him, but found him not; I called him, but he gave no answer. 'I will rise now and go about the city, in the streets and in the squares; I will seek him whom my soul loves.' I sought him, but found him not. The sentinels found me, as they went about in the city. 'Have you seen him whom my soul loves?' Scarcely had I passed them, when I found him whom my soul loves. I held him, and would not let him go until I brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.

PSALM 42.1-10

As the deer longs for the water-brooks :

So longs my soul for you, O God.

My soul is athirst for God, even for the living God :

When shall I come before the presence of God?

My tears have been my bread day and night :

While all the day long they say unto me; 'Where is now your God?'

Now when I think on these things I pour out my soul :

How I went with the multitude;
and led the procession to the house of God;

With the voice of praise and thanksgiving :

Among such as keep holy-day.

Why are you so full of heaviness, O my soul :

And why are you so disquieted within me?

O put your trust in God :

For I will yet give him thanks;

Who is the help of my countenance and my God.

My soul is heavy within me :

Therefore I will remember you from the land of Jordan;
and from Hermon and the hill of Mizar.

Deep calls to deep in the thunder of your waterfalls :

All your breakers and waves have gone over me.

The Lord will grant his loving-kindness in the day-time :

Through the night his song will be with me;

A prayer to the God of my life. Response

NEW TESTAMENT READING 2 Corinthians 5.14-17 read by James Luckey

For the love of Christ urges us on, because we are convinced that one has died for all; therefore all have died. And he died for all, so that those who live might live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised for them. From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way. So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new!

GOSPEL READING John 20: 1-2, 11-18

Choir Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

All Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Choir Tell us, Mary, say what thou didst see upon the way.

The tomb the Living did enclose; I saw Christ's glory as he rose!

All Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.'

But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, 'Woman, why are you weeping?' She said to them, 'They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.' When she had said this, she turned round and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, 'Woman, why are you weeping? For whom are you looking?' Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, 'Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.' Jesus said to her, 'Mary!' She turned and said to him in Hebrew, 'Rabbouni!' (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, 'Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, "I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God." ' Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, 'I have seen the Lord'; and she told them that he had said these things to her.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

SERMON Canon Paul Smith

Wholeness and Healing - Saturday 5 August

Since the early days of the Church, human touch and anointing with oil have played an important role in worship and pastoral care, symbolising both comfort and healing. The next Eucharist of Wholeness and Healing is Saturday 5 August. You may like prayer for yourself or for another. There is no need to say what the need is – God knows our hearts. All are welcome. The service is in the Lady Chapel and begins at 9.00am and lasts about 40 minutes.

Luna Cinema – Saturday 18 and Sunday 19 August

Have you booked your tickets yet for the outdoor film screenings on the front lawn of the Cathedral? Moulin Rouge! on Saturday, Paddington 2 on Sunday.

Could you help visitors to get the best view in Surrey?

The Cathedral offers two scheduled tower tours most Saturdays between April and November and popularity of these is growing. Tower Tour Guides lead the tours up to the top of the tower where you can see a fantastic view of the surrounding area. The tours last for about 45 minutes. There are 249 steps to the top and guides should be comfortable with heights and stairs. Generally all guides are on duty once a month. If you'd like to learn more about this wonderful opportunity please contact Gill Thorpe on 01483 547885 or email gill@guildford-cathedral.org.

Cathedral Sound System

The next meeting of the sound system working group is on 21 August. The opportunity will be taken to assess the overall quality of the sound system as there have been no further defects. Please continue to give feedback to congregation representatives or via the chart at the Welcome Desk.

Christmas Concert

The Music Department is putting on an exciting Christmas Concert on Saturday 8 December 2018. Details to follow, but for now we are hoping to secure some corporate sponsorship to help cover the costs of putting this on. If you are in a position to enable your own company to sponsor this, or deal with organisations who may wish to have this opportunity, please contact our Head of Fundraising, Susan Barry: susan@guildford-cathedral.org or 01483 547878. Thank you.

CATHEDRAL

GUILDFORD CATHEDRAL is a place of prayer, reflection, work and celebration, held in particular affection by the many thousands of people who helped build it by buying a brick. There is much to offer to visitors and to those who are looking for a church community to call home. All regular weekday and Sunday services are open to all. The beautiful building and the excellent choral tradition contribute to making our Cathedral a place to which, once visited, you will want to return. As well as the rhythm of daily worship we maintain an exciting programme of arts, events, lectures, workshops, exhibitions and concerts.

The Cathedral is a centre for worship and mission to support the ministry of the Bishop in faith and engagement. The Cathedral is a sacred space and an open community of people who together engage with God and the wider world, for the common good. It is a focus and resource for the whole community: a place of daily choral worship, a space for stillness and prayer, a place of pilgrimage and a venue for concerts, art and education.
