HYMN 250 (omit verses 4 and 5)

COLLECT

Almighty God, who sent your Holy Spirit
to be the life and light of your Church:
open our hearts to the riches of your grace,
that we may bring forth the fruit of the Spirit
in love and joy and peace;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

OLD TESTAMENT READING 2 Kings 4.42-end read by Janet Lawson

A man came from Baal-shalishah, bringing food from the first fruits to the man of God: twenty loaves of barley and fresh ears of grain in his sack. Elisha said, 'Give it to the people and let them eat.' But his servant said, 'How can I set this before a hundred people?' So he repeated, 'Give it to the people and let them eat, for thus says the Lord, "They shall eat and have some left."' He set it before them, they ate, and had some left, according to the word of the Lord.

PSALM 145.10-19

All your works praise you, O Lord :

And your faithful servants bless you.

They tell of the glory of your kingdom :

And speak of your mighty power;

To make known to all peoples your mighty acts :

And the glorious splendour of your kingdom.

Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom :

Your dominion endures throughout all ages. Response

The Lord is sure in all his words :
and faithful in all his deeds.
The Lord upholds all those who fall.
and lifts up all those who are bowed down.
The eyes of all wait upon you O Lord :
and you give them their food in due season.
You open wide your hand :
and fill all things living with plenty. Response

The Lord is righteous in all his ways :
And loving in all his works.
The Lord is near to those who call upon him :
to all who call upon him faithfully. Response

NEW TESTAMENT READING Ephesians 3.14-end read by John Mitchell

For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth takes its name. I pray that, according to the riches of his glory, he may grant that you may be strengthened in your inner being with power through his Spirit, and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith, as you are being rooted and grounded in love. I pray that you may have the power to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

Now to him who by the power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, for ever and ever. Amen.

GOSPEL READING John 6.1-21

Al - le-lu - ia, al-le-lu - ia.

Choir Alleluia, alleluia.

All Alleluia, alleluia.

Choir Your words are Spirit, Lord, and they are life;
You have the message of eternal life.

All Alleluia, alleluia.

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

After this Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also called the Sea of Tiberias. A large crowd kept following him, because they saw the signs that he was doing for the sick. Jesus went up the mountain and sat down there with his disciples. Now the Passover, the festival of the Jews, was near. When he looked up and saw a large crowd coming towards him, Jesus said to Philip, 'Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?' He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, 'Six months' wages would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little.' One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, 'There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. But what are they among so many people?' Jesus said, 'Make the people sit down.' Now there was a great deal of grass in the place; so they sat down, about five thousand in all. Then Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted. When they were satisfied, he told his disciples, 'Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing may be lost.' So they gathered them up, and from the fragments of the five barley loaves, left by those who had eaten, they filled twelve baskets. When the people saw the sign that he had done, they began to say, 'This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world.'

When Jesus realized that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain by himself. When evening came, his disciples went down to the lake, got into a boat, and started across the lake to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. The lake became rough because a strong wind was blowing. When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the lake and coming near the boat, and they were terrified. But he said to them, 'It is I; do not be afraid.' Then they wanted to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the land towards which they were going.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Alleluia, alleluia.

SERMON Canon Julie Gittoes

INTERCESSIONS led by James Luckey

HYMN 412

MOTET Geistliches Lied Johannes Brahms (1833-1897)

Laß dich nur nichts nicht dauren mit Trauren, sei stille, wie Gott es fügt,
so sei vergnügt mein Wille!
Was willst du heute
sorgen auf morgen?

*Do not be sorrowful or regretful;
Be calm, as God has ordained,
and thus my will shall be content.
What do you want to worry about from day to day?*

Der Eine steht allem für,
der gibt auch dir das Deine.
Sei nur in allem Handel ohn Wandel, steh feste, was Gott beschleußt,
das ist und heißt das Beste. Amen.

*There is One who stands above all who gives you, too, what is yours.
Only be steadfast in all you do,
stand firm; what God has decided,
that is and must be the best. Amen*

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Holy Father,
who gathered us here
around the table of your Son
to share this meal with the whole household of God:
in that new world, where you reveal the fullness of your peace,
gather people of every race and language to share in the eternal banquet of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

From all that dwell below the skies,
let the Creator's praise arise;
let the Redeemer's name be sung through every land, by every tongue.

In every land begin the song;
to every land the strains belong.
In cheerful sounds all voices raise and fill the world with loudest praise.

Your lofty themes, ye mortals, bring;
in songs of praise divinely sing.
The great salvation loud proclaim,
and shout for joy the Saviour's name.

Eternal are thy mercies, Lord;
eternal truth attends thy word.
Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore,
till suns shall rise and set no more. Alleluia!

O Thou, the central orb of righteous love, pure beam of the most High, eternal Light of this our wintry world, thy radiance bright awakes new joy in faith, hope soars above.

Come, quickly come, and let thy glory shine,
gilding our darksome heaven with rays divine.

Thy saints with holy lustre round Thee move,
As stars about thy throne, set in the height
Of God's ordaining counsel, as Thy sight
Gives measured grace to each, Thy power to prove.

Let Thy bright beams disperse the gloom of sin,
Our nature all shall feel eternal day
In fellowship with thee, transforming day
To souls erewhile unclean, now pure within. Amen.

Summer Organ Festival – Thursday evenings 7.30

To celebrate the refurbishment of the organ there will be a series of five Thursday evening recitals, each with an exciting and varied programme showcasing the instrument. Entrance is free and there will be a retiring collection. Each programme will last approximately 75 minutes.

Wholeness and Healing - Saturday 4 August

Since the early days of the Church, human touch and anointing with oil have played an important role in worship and pastoral care, symbolising both comfort and healing. The next Eucharist of Wholeness and Healing is Saturday 4 August. You may like prayer for yourself or for another. There is no need to say what the need is – God knows our hearts. All are welcome. The service is in the Lady Chapel and begins at 9.00am and lasts about 40 minutes.

Thank you from Canon Andrew

We [Canon Andrew, Alice, Edmund (in his absence), Charles, Hugh and Beatrice] would like to thank everyone at the Cathedral for the most warm and generous send off on 15 July. Our time in Guildford has been very precious, and now we have safely moved and ready for the next chapter.

The Cathedral offers two scheduled tower tours most Saturdays between April and November and popularity of these is growing. Tower Tour Guides lead the tours up to the top of the tower where you can see a fantastic view of the surrounding area. The tours last for about 45 minutes. There are 249 steps to the top and guides should be comfortable with heights and stairs. Generally all guides are on duty once a month. If you'd like to learn more about this wonderful opportunity please contact Gill Thorpe on 01483 547885 or email gill@guildford-cathedral.org.

Luna Cinema – Saturday 18 and Sunday 19 August

GUILDFORD
CATHEDRAL

GUILDFORD CATHEDRAL is a place of prayer, reflection, work and celebration, held in particular affection by the many thousands of people who helped build it by buying a brick. There is much to offer to visitors and to those who are looking for a church community to call home. All regular weekday and Sunday services are open to all. The beautiful building and the excellent choral tradition contribute to making our Cathedral a place to which, once visited, you will want to return. As well as the rhythm of daily worship we maintain an exciting programme of arts, events, lectures, workshops, exhibitions and concerts.

The Cathedral is a centre for worship and mission to support the ministry of the Bishop in faith and engagement. The Cathedral is a sacred space and an open community of people who together engage with God and the wider world, for the common good. It is a focus and resource for the whole community: a place of daily choral worship, a space for stillness and prayer, a place of pilgrimage and a venue for concerts, art and education.
