

GUILDFORD
CATHEDRAL

Welcome

Fourteenth Sunday after Trinity

Sunday 2 September 2018

SUNDAY SCHOOL is taking a break during the summer and will begin on 9 September. There is a DIY crèche in the Exhibition Room (next to the Library) for under 3s.

HYMN BOOKS For services in the Nave, hymn books and Books of Common Prayer can be found behind the kneeler on the seat in front of you.

COFFEE AND FELLOWSHIP Coffee and tea and other refreshments available at the back of Seasons after the Eucharist. No need to queue.

GIVING Regular worshippers are asked to join the Planned Giving Scheme. For more information please ask a Steward. Visitors and UK taxpayers are asked to use the Gift Aid envelope for their offering towards the work and worship of the Cathedral. Please complete the details on the envelope to enable us to claim back the tax as Gift Aid.

COMMUNITY If you have been worshipping here for a little while, and are beginning to feel at home and would like to know more about playing your part in the life of this community, please get in touch via welcome@guildford-cathedral.org. If you have been a regular at the Cathedral for six months or more, please ensure that your name is added to the Cathedral Community Roll – forms available from the Stewards.

HYMN 558

COLLECT

Almighty God,
whose only Son hath opened for us
a new and living way into thy presence:
grant that, with pure hearts and constant wills,
we may worship thee in spirit and in truth;
through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord,
who liveth and reigneth with thee,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

OLD TESTAMENT READING Deuteronomy 4.1-2, 6-9
read by Andrew Hodges

So now, Israel, give heed to the statutes and ordinances that I am teaching you to observe, so that you may live to enter and occupy the land that the Lord, the God of your ancestors, is giving you. You must neither add anything to what I command you nor take away anything from it, but keep the commandments of the Lord your God with which I am charging you.

You must observe them diligently, for this will show your wisdom and discernment to the peoples, who, when they hear all these statutes, will say, 'Surely this great nation is a wise and discerning people!' For what other great nation has a god so near to it as the Lord our God is whenever we call to him? And what other great nation has statutes and ordinances as just as this entire law that I am setting before you today?

But take care and watch yourselves closely, so as neither to forget the things that your eyes have seen nor to let them slip from your mind all the days of your life; make them known to your children and your children's children.

PSALM 15

- 1 Lord, who shall dwell in thy tabernacle :
or who shall rest upon thy holy hill?
- 2 Even he, that leadeth an uncorrupt life :
and doeth the thing which is right, and speaketh the truth from his heart.
- 3 He that hath used no deceit in his tongue, nor done evil to his neighbour :
and hath not slandered his neighbour.
- 4 He that setteth not by himself, but is lowly in his own eyes :
and maketh much of them that fear the Lord.
- 5 He that sweareth unto his neighbour, and disappointeth him not :
though it were to his own hindrance.
- 6 He that hath not given his money upon usury :
nor taken reward against the innocent.
- 7 Whoso doeth these things :
shall never fall.

NEW TESTAMENT READING James 1.17-end read by Shirley-Margaret Lloyd

Every generous act of giving, with every perfect gift, is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change. In fulfilment of his own purpose he gave us birth by the word of truth, so that we would become a kind of first fruits of his creatures.

You must understand this, my beloved: let everyone be quick to listen, slow to speak, slow to anger; for your anger does not produce God's righteousness. Therefore rid yourselves of all sordidness and rank growth of wickedness, and welcome with meekness the implanted word that has the power to save your souls.

But be doers of the word, and not merely hearers who deceive themselves. For if any are hearers of the word and not doers, they are like those who look at themselves in a mirror; for they look at themselves and, on going away, immediately forget what they were like. But those who look into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and persevere, being not hearers who forget but doers who act - they will be blessed in their doing.

If any think they are religious, and do not bridle their tongues but deceive their hearts, their religion is worthless. Religion that is pure and undefiled before God, the Father, is this: to care for orphans and widows in their distress, and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

HYMN 391

GOSPEL READING Mark 7.1-8,14,15,21-23

The Holy Gospel is written in the seventh chapter of the Gospel according to Saint Mark, beginning at the first verse.

Now when the Pharisees and some of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered around Jesus, they noticed that some of his disciples were eating with defiled hands, that is, without washing them. (For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, do not eat unless they thoroughly wash their hands, thus observing the tradition of the elders; and they do not eat anything from the market unless they wash it; and there are also many other traditions that they observe, the washing of cups, pots, and bronze kettles.) So the Pharisees and the scribes asked him, ‘Why do your disciples not live according to the tradition of the elders, but eat with defiled hands?’ He said to them, ‘Isaiah prophesied rightly about you hypocrites, as it is written, “This people honours me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me; in vain do they worship me, teaching human precepts as doctrines.” You abandon the commandment of God and hold to human tradition.’

Then he called the crowd again and said to them, ‘Listen to me, all of you, and understand: there is nothing outside a person that by going in can defile, but the things that come out are what defile.’ For it is from within, from the human heart, that evil intentions come: fornication, theft, murder, adultery, avarice, wickedness, deceit, licentiousness, envy, slander, pride, folly. All these evil things come from within, and they defile a person.’

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

SERMON Canon Julie Gittoes

HYMN 253(i)

MOTET Locus iste, Anton Bruckner (1824-1896)

Locus iste a Deo factus est, inaestimabile sacramentum,
irreprehensibilis est.

*This place was made by God,
a priceless mystery;
it is without reproof.*

HYMN 591 (223)

ORGAN Prelude in D minor, Charles Villiers Stanford (1852-1924)

11.30am Choral Mattins

READINGS Jonah 3.1-9; Revelation 3.14-end

ANTHEM Verleih uns Frieden, Felix Mendelssohn (1809-1847)

Verleih uns Frieden gnädiglich,
Herr Gott, zu unsern Zeiten.
Es ist doch ja kein anderer nicht,
der für uns könnte streiten,
denn du, unser Gott, alleine.

*In these our days so perilous,
Lord, peace in mercy send us;
No God but thee can fight for us,
No God but thee defend us;
Thou our only God and Saviour.*

Text: Martin Luther (1483-1546)

ORGAN Prelude in E minor, Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)

6pm Choral Evensong

Sung by Stag Montem Chorem

READINGS Exodus 12.21-27; Matthew 4.23-5.20

ANTHEM Evening hymn, Henry Balfour Gardiner (1877-1950)

Te lucis ante terminum,
Rerum Creator, poscimus,
Ut pro tua clementia,
Sis praesul et custodia.

*To thee before the close of day,
Creator of the world, we pray
That, with thy wonted favor, thou
Wouldst be our guard and keeper now.*

Procul recedant somnia,
Et noctium phantasmata:
Hostemque nostrum comprime,
Ne polluantur corpora.

*From all ill dreams defend our sight,
From fears and terrors of the night;
Withhold from us our ghostly foe,
That spot of sin we may not know.*

Praesta, Pater piissime,
Patrique compar Unice,
Cum Spiritu Paraclito,
Regnans per omne saeculum. Amen.

*O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son,
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally. Amen.*

NOTICEBOARD

Flowers in the Cathedral

Thank you to Jyl Wheeler, Hazel Sharples and Angela Johnson for the beautiful flowers in the Cathedral this week.

Buns on Saturday – Saturday 8 September 10am Chapter House

All are welcome to this informal opportunity to discuss issues of life, faith and the things we might just call 'stuff', but which is important or relevant to us. All views or opinions heard and respected. Coffee, tea and fresh buns provided. More details from John and Caroline Austin, Sheila Mackelworth, Jean Deeks or the Dean.

Donations for Food Bank and York Road – next Sunday 9 September

The North Guildford Food Bank and the No 5 Project thank the cathedral congregation for their continued generous support. For our collection on Sunday 9 September, the Food Bank have requested the following items which are running low in their stores - Biscuits, cereal, marmite, soup, sugar, washing powder/liquid, fabric softener. The No 5 Project are always grateful for fruit and vegetables. Thank you so much for remembering those in need in our community.

Threads through Revelation

We're delighted to be hosting the Threads through Revelation exhibition, which is a spectacular display of vibrant textile art by Jacqui Parkinson. Using fabric, silks, paint, stitching and metallic leathers she has created dramatic designs inspired by the images from Revelation (the last book in the Bible).

Tea and Talk – Thursday 13 September, 3pm

Join The Friends of Guildford Cathedral for Afternoon Tea and a Talk from The Reverend George Newton, Vicar of Holy Trinity, Aldershot, who will speak about his year as Master of the Girdlers Company. The Girdlers Company, which was involved with the making of girdles (or belts), received its Letters Patent from Edward III in 1327. While it no longer practises its craft the Company has the honour of presenting the girdle and stole worn by the Sovereign at each coronation. Tickets: £15 for Friends • £16.50 for non-Friends. Booking forms are available in the leaflet stand outside of the Cathedral Shop, or contact Lisa Hatherall, Friends Secretary, friends@guildford-cathedral.org or 01483 547 875

Congratulations to Canon Julie

Canon Julie has been appointed as Acting Chaplain to the University of Surrey for the academic year 2018-2019. This is in addition to her role at the Cathedral so we don't have to say farewell! Obviously there will be adjustments to her timetable but her very valued contribution to the core work of the Cathedral will continue. Please pray for Julie and the Chaplaincy Team at the University as she prepares to take up her new role.

Coffee Concert – Thursday 20 September, 10.30am

We are delighted to be welcoming Emily Bolton and the Motivation by Music Gospel Choir. The group will perform a varied programme and all are welcome.

Free coffee and tea are available from 10.30am and the concert begins at 11.15am. If you would like to be part of the Hospitality Team or for more information contact Emma Law on 01483 547862 or deanspa@guildford-cathedral.org

God for Grown-ups - An 8 week course covering the main areas of Christian faith and practice.

Would you like an opportunity to discuss issues of Christian faith and discipleship as they relate to contemporary 21st century life? Would you like to ask those tricky questions about Christian faith that you have wanted to ask for a long time? Would you be interested in preparing for confirmation as an adult? Would you like to know about Christian faith so that you can guide your children on their journey of faith? Then God for Grown-ups is for you! As part of implementing the cathedral's new vision, Canon Paul will be running a Christian enquirers course designed to think through Christian faith for grown-up 21st century people. It will take place at his home with an informal atmosphere over tea and cake. If you are interested, please speak to him or e-mail him on Paul.Smith@guildford-cathedral.org

World's Biggest Coffee Morning – Friday 28 September, 10.30am

We're delighted to be taking part in the Macmillan World's Biggest Coffee Morning again this year. Our 2018-19 Organ Scholar, Martina Smyth, will be providing musical accompaniment during the morning. All are welcome to attend the coffee morning, which will run from 10.30am-12.00noon. If you are able to make cakes for the event, please email reception@guildford-cathedral.org or call on 01483 547 860 so that we can keep a list of the lovely cakes that will be available for guests to buy.

Guildford Cathedral Remembers – Poppy Fields 5 and 6 October 6.30pm

Poppy Fields is the start of the program of events taking place at Guildford Cathedral to commemorate WWI. This will include schools workshops, a family event, the lighting of the outside of the Cathedral with falling poppies and, in November, many other local and national Remembrance Day commemorations. The Cathedral is delighted to be working with Guildford Diocese, Surrey County Council, The Surrey Lieutenancy, Guildford Borough Council and The Royal British Legion on these events.

Poppy Fields is a unique light and sound installation to commemorate the World War One Centenary. This stunning productions will fill Guildford Cathedral with poppies. For two nights only the Cathedral will open after dark and provide a sensory experience of light, music, art and poetry enabling reflection and contemplation and an opportunity to remember those who have served, both in the First World War and in all other conflicts.

Created by Peter Walker, Artistic Director at Lichfield Cathedral and Luxmuralis, the installation will feature projections inside Guildford Cathedral, including names of soldiers who have served in the armed forces. A beautiful sound artwork composed by David Harper, accompanies the installation and includes four readings of World War One poems by Oscar Winning actor, Eddie Redmayne.

Tickets are £5 and £2.50 for accompanied under 16's. Available from:

GUILDFORD CATHEDRAL is a place of prayer, reflection, work and celebration, held in particular affection by the many thousands of people who helped build it by buying a brick. There is much to offer to visitors and to those who are looking for a church community to call home. All regular weekday and Sunday services are open to all. The beautiful building and the excellent choral tradition contribute to making our Cathedral a place to which, once visited, you will want to return. As well as the rhythm of daily worship we maintain an exciting programme of arts, events, lectures, workshops, exhibitions and concerts.

The Cathedral is a centre for worship and mission to support the ministry of the Bishop in faith and engagement. The Cathedral is a sacred space and an open community of people who together engage with God and the wider world, for the common good. It is a focus and resource for the whole community: a place of daily choral worship, a space for stillness and prayer, a place of pilgrimage and a venue for concerts, art and education.
