

GUILDFORD
CATHEDRAL

Welcome

Eighteenth Sunday after Trinity

Sunday 30 September 2018

LECTIO DIVINA takes place today at 8.45am in the Library. An informal opportunity to reflect on scripture together in a contemplative way.

SUNDAY SCHOOL for children in primary school takes place in the Library during the Cathedral Eucharist. There is a DIY crèche in the Exhibition Room (next to the Library) for under 3s.

HYMN BOOKS For services in the Nave, hymn books and Books of Common Prayer can be found behind the kneeler on the seat in front of you.

COFFEE AND FELLOWSHIP Coffee and tea and other refreshments available at the back of Seasons. No need to queue.

GIVING Regular worshippers are asked to join the Planned Giving Scheme. For more information please ask a Steward. Visitors and UK taxpayers are asked to use the Gift Aid envelope for their offering towards the work and worship of the Cathedral. Please complete the details on the envelope to enable us to claim back the tax as Gift Aid.

COMMUNITY If you have been worshipping here for a little while, and are beginning to feel at home and would like to know more about playing your part in the life of this community, please get in touch via welcome@guildford-cathedral.org. If you have been a regular at the Cathedral for six months or more, please ensure that your name is added to the Cathedral Community Roll – forms available from the Stewards.

HYMN 6 (i)

COLLECT

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us your gift of faith that, forsaking what lies behind and reaching out to that which is before, we may run the way of your commandments and win the crown of everlasting joy;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

OLD TESTAMENT READING Numbers 11.4-6,10-16,24-29
read by Rachel Impey

The rabble among them had a strong craving; and the Israelites also wept again, and said, 'If only we had meat to eat! We remember the fish we used to eat in Egypt for nothing, the cucumbers, the melons, the leeks, the onions, and the garlic; but now our strength is dried up, and there is nothing at all but this manna to look at.' Moses heard the people weeping throughout their families, all at the entrances of their tents. Then the Lord became very angry, and Moses was displeased.

So Moses said to the Lord, 'Why have you treated your servant so badly? Why have I not found favour in your sight, that you lay the burden of all this people on me? Did I conceive all this people? Did I give birth to them, that you should say to me, "Carry them in your bosom, as a nurse carries a sucking child", to the land that you promised on oath to their ancestors? Where am I to get meat to give to all this people? For they come weeping to me and say, "Give us meat to eat!" I am not able to carry all this people alone, for they are too heavy for me. If this is the way you are going to treat me, put me to death at once - if I have found favour in your sight - and do not let me see my misery.'

So the Lord said to Moses, 'Gather for me seventy of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people and officers over them; bring them to the tent of meeting, and have them take their place there with you. So Moses went out and told the people the words of the Lord; and he gathered seventy elders of the people, and placed them all around the tent. Then the Lord came down in the cloud and spoke to him, and took some of the spirit that was on him and put it on the seventy elders; and when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied. But they did not do so again. Two men remained in the camp, one named Eldad, and the other named Medad, and the spirit rested on them; they were among those registered, but they had not gone out to the tent, and so they prophesied in the camp. And a young man ran and told Moses, 'Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.' And Joshua son of Nun, the assistant of Moses, one of his chosen men, said, 'My lord Moses, stop them!' But Moses said to him, 'Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the Lord's people were prophets, and that the Lord would put his spirit on them!'

PSALM 19. 7-14

The command-ment of the Lord is pure and gives light to the eyes.

The law of the Lord is perfect, reviving the soul :

The testimony of the Lord is sure; and gives wisdom to the simple.

The statutes of the Lord are right and rejoice the heart :

The commandment of the Lord is pure; and gives light to the eyes.

The fear of the Lord is clean and endures for ever :

The judgements of the Lord are true and righteous altogether

More to be desired are they than gold; more than much fine gold :

Sweeter also than honey, dripping from the honey-comb.

By them also is your servant taught :

And in keeping them there is great reward. Response

Who can tell how often they offend? :

O cleanse me from my secret faults!

Keep your servant also from presumptuous sins;

lest they get dominion over me :

So shall I be undefiled and innocent of great offence.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight :

O Lord my strength and my redeemer. Response

NEW TESTAMENT READING James 5.13-end read by John Mitchell

Are any among you suffering? They should pray. Are any cheerful? They should sing songs of praise. Are any among you sick? They should call for the elders of the church and have them pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord. The prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise them up; and anyone who has committed sins will be forgiven. Therefore confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The prayer of the righteous is powerful and effective. Elijah was a human being like us, and he prayed fervently that it might not rain, and for three years and six months it did not rain on the earth. Then he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain and the earth yielded its harvest. My brothers and sisters, if anyone among you wanders from the truth and is brought back by another, you should know that whoever brings back a sinner from wandering will save the sinner's soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

GOSPEL READING Mark 9.38-end

Choir Alleluia, alleluia.

All Alleluia, alleluia.

Choir Your word is truth, O Lord:
Consecrate us in the truth.

All Alleluia, alleluia.

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

John said to Jesus, 'Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he was not following us.' But Jesus said, 'Do not stop him; for no one who does a deed of power in my name will be able soon afterwards to speak evil of me. Whoever is not against us is for us. For truly I tell you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you bear the name of Christ will by no means lose the reward.

'If any of you put a stumbling-block before one of these little ones who believe in me, it would be better for you if a great millstone were hung around your neck and you were thrown into the sea. If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life maimed than to have two hands and to go to hell, to the unquenchable fire. And if your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life lame than to have two feet and to be thrown into hell. And if your eye causes you to stumble, tear it out; it is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than to have two eyes and to be thrown into hell, where their worm never dies, and the fire is never quenched. 'For everyone will be salted with fire. Salt is good; but if salt has lost its saltiness, how can you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Alleluia, alleluia.

SERMON Canon Paul Smith

HYMN 411

MOTET Ego sum panis vivus William Byrd (1538-1623)

Ego sum panis vivus, qui de caelo descendi.

Si quis manducaverit ex hoc pane,
vivet in aeternum, Alleluia.

I am the living bread which came down from heaven.

Whosoever shall eat of this bread shall live forever, Alleluia.

text: John 6:51-52; Antiphon to the Benedictus at Lauds for Corpus Christi

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

We praise and thank you, O Christ, for this sacred feast:

for here we receive you,

here the memory of your passion is renewed,

here our minds are filled with grace, and here a pledge of future glory is given,

when we shall feast at that table where you reign

with all your saints for ever. Amen

ANTHEM The Lord is good, Cecilia McDowall (b. 1951)

The Lord is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him.

It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the Lord.

It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.

For the Lord will not cast off for ever:

But though he cause grief,

yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies.

For he doth not afflict willingly nor grieve the children of men.

Jerusalem convertere ad Dominum Deum tuum.

Jerusalem, return to the Lord your God.

NOTICEBOARD

Flowers in the Cathedral

Thank you to Lynne Moore, from Daisy Tuffen Flower Club, and Kate Lamport, from Lily and Myrtle, for the beautiful flowers in the Cathedral this week.

Prayer for Healing with anointing – TODAY Sunday 30 September

Prayer, laying on of hands and anointing is offered during the Cathedral Eucharist today. Please go to the Regimental Chapel immediately after receiving Communion. You may want prayer for healing for yourself or another person or you may have some other concern for which you would appreciate prayer. Anyone with any request is welcome.

World's Biggest Coffee Morning

Thank you to everyone who helped, made cakes, played music, and shared hospitality with us for the MacMillan Coffee Morning on Friday. There is still donations coming in from this, so at this time we're unable to confirm the amount raised, but please keep an eye on the notice boards for this. It was a fabulous morning full of happiness, chat and cake!

Seasons - Monday 1 October

This is Seasons' first birthday at the Cathedral – we wish them many happy returns and offer our thanks for a wonderful year of food, drinks and, most importantly, care

Cathedral Tots Harvest Special – Wednesday 3 October 10 to 11am

Part of our Harvest celebrations – an informal service for young children and their grandparents, parents and carers. Tell your friends and join us for music, craft activities, story time and free play in the Nave; plus the opportunity to chat over refreshments. All are welcome, including babes in arms. Offers of help to provide refreshments or assist with crafts appreciated. Enquiries to Canon Paul or louise@guildford-cathedral.org

Poppy Fields – 5 and 6 October, from 6.30pm

Poppy Fields is a unique light and sound installation for two nights only. The Cathedral will open after dark and provide a sensory experience of light, music, art and poetry enabling reflection and contemplation and an opportunity to remember those who have served, both in the First World War and in all other conflicts. A beautiful sound artwork accompanies the installation and includes readings of World War One poems by Oscar Winning actor, Eddie Redmayne. Tickets are £5 and £2.50 for accompanied under 16's. Available from: <https://www.guildford-cathedral.org/events/boxoffice>

Wholeness and Healing - Saturday 6 October

Since the early days of the Church, human touch and anointing with oil have played an important role in worship and pastoral care, symbolising both comfort and healing. The next Eucharist of Wholeness and Healing is Saturday 6 October. You may like prayer for yourself or for another. There is no need to say what the need is – God knows our hearts. All are welcome. The service is in the Lady Chapel and begins at 9.00am and lasts about 40 minutes.

Harvest Songs of Celebration – Sunday 7 October 6pm

Our celebration of Harvest will take the form of a 'Songs of Praise' with hymns chosen by members of the teams of volunteers at the Cathedral. This year we are celebrating not only the harvest of creation but also the harvest of human gifts and talents. Please do come and join us to sing some of your favourite harvest hymns.

The Food Bank and the No. 5 Project – Sunday 7 October

This month the Food Bank has requested the following items for our collection: 'Bags for Life', flavoured noodles, tinned rice pudding, tinned soup, ketchup, tinned pasta and washing up liquid. The No 5 Project are always grateful for fresh food. Any fresh items donated will be delivered to them.

Harvest Supper – Sunday 7 October 7pm

It is with sadness that we have had to cancel the Harvest Supper in Seasons; unfortunately there was insufficient take-up

A Sewing Bee and A Cup of Tea – Tuesday 9 October 2pm to 4pm

We are delighted to be strengthening and growing our relationship with Guildford Diocese Mothers' Union. You are welcome to join them for their upcoming event, 'A Sewing Bee and a Cup of Tea'. This is an afternoon of tea, cake and conversation with the winner of the 2014 Great British Sewing Bee, Heather Jacks. They will also be launching their campaign to raise funds for the gilding of the Lady Chapel gates. £10 per person. For more details contact the Diocesan President, Antonia Wilson, on 020 8398 5513 or antics64@gmail.com.

Congregational Visit to the Tower – Sunday 14 October

Members of the congregations are invited to visit the Cathedral tower after the Cathedral Eucharist. The Cathedral bell ringers will be your guides and will show you the bells and explain a little about ringing. Then you will go up to the top of the tower for the best view in Surrey. Meet at 11.30 am on the south side of the crossing. To help with numbers please register your interest on 01483 547 860 or reception@guildford-cathedral.org

Visit the Cabinet War Rooms – 31 October

The next day trip for the Friends of Guildford Cathedral is to Churchill's Cabinet War Rooms in London. The ticket includes a tour of the War Rooms, the services of a Blue Badge Guide, coach travel and coffee on arrival at Whitehall. For more information please pick up a leaflet from the information stand outside the Cathedral Shop or from our Secretary Lisa Hatherall, friends@guildford-cathedral.org

God for Grown-ups - An 8 week course covering the main areas of Christian faith and practice

Would you like an opportunity to discuss issues of Christian faith and discipleship as they relate to contemporary 21st century life, or ask those tricky questions about Christian faith that you have wanted to ask for a long time? Would you like to know about Christian faith so that you can guide your children on their journey of faith or be interested in preparing for confirmation as an adult? Then God for Grown-ups is for you. Canon Paul will be running a Christian enquirers course designed to think through Christian faith for 21st century thinking adults. It will take place at his home with an informal atmosphere over tea and cake. If you are interested, please speak to him or e-mail Paul.Smith@guildford-cathedral.org

Welcome to University Students

At the start of a new semester, we would like to extend a warm welcome to new and returning students. Canon Julie is also University Chaplain and would be pleased to meet you - and there is an opportunity to gather over refreshments in Seasons Cafe after this Cathedral Eucharist. There is also a leaflet available with information about the Chaplaincy and Cathedral. You can contact Canon Julie on julie@guildford-cathedral.org or j.gittoes@surrey.ac.uk

National Cathedrals Conference

“Sacred Space, Common Ground”: a delegation from Guildford joined clergy, musicians, operational and fundraising staff, virgers and representatives of chapter/council from the 41 English Cathedrals for the first national Cathedrals conference in Manchester. The conference was themed around Archbishop Justin’s three priorities - prayer/renewal of religious life, reconciliation and witness. Alongside the worship and keynote addresses from Mayor Dan Jarvis, Bishop Stephen (Chelmsford), Dame Fiona Reynolds (Cathedral Fabric Commission for England) and Fr Timothy Radcliffe, there were a number of workshops on topics from governance to marketing, music outreach to public engagement. Our own local delegation will be meeting to discuss how the spirit and energy of the conference might impact on our life and ministry.

The journalist Andy Walton wrote the following article for the Church Times which can be accessed without a subscription:

GUILDFORD CATHEDRAL is a place of prayer, reflection, work and celebration, held in particular affection by the many thousands of people who helped build it by buying a brick. There is much to offer to visitors and to those who are looking for a church community to call home. All regular weekday and Sunday services are open to all. The beautiful building and the excellent choral tradition contribute to making our Cathedral a place to which, once visited, you will want to return. As well as the rhythm of daily worship we maintain an exciting programme of arts, events, lectures, workshops, exhibitions and concerts.

The Cathedral is a centre for worship and mission to support the ministry of the Bishop in faith and engagement. The Cathedral is a sacred space and an open community of people who together engage with God and the wider world, for the common good. It is a focus and resource for the whole community: a place of daily choral worship, a space for stillness and prayer, a place of pilgrimage and a venue for concerts, art and education.
