COLLECT

God, the giver of life,
whose Holy Spirit wells up within your Church:
by the Spirit's gifts equip us to live the gospel of Christ and make us eager to do your will,
that we may share with the whole creation
the joys of eternal life;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

OLD TESTAMENT READING Amos 5.6-7, 10-15 read by Marion Marshall

Seek the Lord and live, or he will break out against the house of Joseph like fire, and it will devour Bethel, with no one to quench it. Ah, you that turn justice to wormwood, and bring righteousness to the ground!

They hate the one who reproves in the gate, and they abhor the one who speaks the truth. Therefore, because you trample on the poor and take from them levies of grain, you have built houses of hewn stone, but you shall not live in them; you have planted pleasant vineyards, but you shall not drink their wine. For I know how many are your transgressions, and how great are your sins - you who afflict the righteous, who take a bribe, and push aside the needy in the gate. Therefore the prudent will keep silent in such a time; for it is an evil time.

Seek good and not evil, that you may live; and so the Lord, the God of hosts, will be with you, just as you have said. Hate evil and love good, and establish justice in the gate; it may be that the Lord, the God of hosts, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.

PSALM 90.12-17

O Lord my God, in you I take re-fuge.

So teach us to number our days :

That we may apply our hearts to wisdom. Response

Turn again, O Lord; how long will you delay :

Have compassion on your servants.

Satisfy us with your loving-kindness in the morning :

That we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

Give us gladness for the days you have afflicted us :

And for the years in which we have seen adversity.

Shew your servants your works :

And let your glory be over their children.

May the gracious favour of the Lord our God be upon us :

Prosper our handiwork;

O prosper the work of our hands. Response

NEW TESTAMENT READING Hebrews 4.12-end read by Matt O'Grady

Indeed, the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account.

Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

GOSPEL READING Mark 10.17-31

Choir Alleluia, alleluia.

All Alleluia, alleluia.

Choir Jesus said: I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life.
No one can come to the Father except through me.

All Alleluia, alleluia.

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, ‘Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?’ Jesus said to him, ‘Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: “You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honour your father and mother.”’ He said to him, ‘Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth.’ Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, ‘You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.’ When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions. Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, ‘How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!’ And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, ‘Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.’ They were greatly astounded and said to one another, ‘Then who can be saved?’ Jesus looked at them and said, ‘For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible.’

Peter began to say to him, ‘Look, we have left everything and followed you.’ Jesus said, ‘Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age - houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields, with persecutions - and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.’

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Alleluia, alleluia.

SERMON The Reverend Lesley Mason, Managing Chaplain HMP Send INTERCESSIONS led by Jonathan Neil-Smith
HYMN 376

MOTET I give you a new commandment Peter Nardone (b. 1965)

I give to you a new commandment,
that you love one another, as I have loved you.

Ubi caritas est vera,
Deus ibi est.
Congregavit nos in
unum Christi amor.
Exsulemus et in ipso jucundemur
Timeamus et amemus Deum vivum.
Et ex corde diligamus
nos sincero.
Amen

*Where charity is true,
God is there.
The love of Christ has gathered us
into one.
Let us rejoice and be glad in him..
Let us fear and love the living God.
And from a sincere heart
let us love one another.*

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

God our Father,
whose Son, the light unfailing,
has come from heaven to deliver the world
from the darkness of ignorance:
let these holy mysteries open the eyes of our understanding that we may know the way of life,
and walk in it without stumbling;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Receiving Communion at home

There are several reasons why you might find yourself unable to come to the cathedral to worship - a short or longer spell of ill health or convalescence; a period of inclement weather; family circumstances or some other reason. Whatever the case you will be missed. It is important to continue to receive the sacraments regularly and to have a sense of your continued membership of the Christian community here. The clergy and some Pastoral Assistants are very willing to visit you at home and bring Holy Communion to you. This is a tangible sign of God's love and care and of your inclusion, although absent, in the cathedral fellowship. Please speak to one of the clergy or contact them by phone or email if we can help you in this way.

God for Grown-ups - An 8 week course covering the main areas of Christian faith and practice

Would you like an opportunity to discuss issues of Christian faith and discipleship as they relate to contemporary 21st century life, or ask those tricky questions about Christian faith that you have wanted to ask for a long time? Would you like to know about Christian faith so that you can guide your children on their journey of faith or be interested in preparing for confirmation as an adult? Then God for Grown-ups is for you. Canon Paul will be running a Christian enquirers course designed to think through Christian faith for 21st century thinking adults. It will take place at his home with an informal atmosphere over tea and cake. If you are interested, please speak to him or e-mail Paul.Smith@guildford-cathedral.org

Coins Scheme

Euros led the way last week, bringing in £34. A weighty gift of current UK coin gave us £35, and Australia brought in over £16. Total is now £18,754. Gifts of unwanted coin and notes from any country and of any age are always welcome to help with fundraising. Please leave with Sacristy or Cathedral Office.

National Cathedrals Conference

“Sacred Space, Common Ground”: a delegation from Guildford joined clergy, musicians, operational and fundraising staff, virgers and representatives of chapter/council from the 41 English Cathedrals for the first national Cathedrals conference in Manchester. The conference was themed around Archbishop Justin's three priorities - prayer/renewal of religious life, reconciliation and witness. Alongside the worship and keynote addresses from Mayor Dan Jarvis, Bishop Stephen (Chelmsford), Dame Fiona Reynolds (Cathedral Fabric Commission for England) and Fr Timothy Radcliffe, there were a number of workshops on topics from governance to marketing, music outreach to public engagement. Our own local delegation will be meeting to discuss how the spirit and energy of the conference might impact on our life and ministry.

The journalist Andy Walton wrote the following article for the Church Times which can be accessed without a subscription:

GUILDFORD
CATHEDRAL

GUILDFORD CATHEDRAL is a place of prayer, reflection, work and celebration, held in particular affection by the many thousands of people who helped build it by buying a brick. There is much to offer to visitors and to those who are looking for a church community to call home. All regular weekday and Sunday services are open to all. The beautiful building and the excellent choral tradition contribute to making our Cathedral a place to which, once visited, you will want to return. As well as the rhythm of daily worship we maintain an exciting programme of arts, events, lectures, workshops, exhibitions and concerts.

The Cathedral is a centre for worship and mission to support the ministry of the Bishop in faith and engagement. The Cathedral is a sacred space and an open community of people who together engage with God and the wider world, for the common good. It is a focus and resource for the whole community: a place of daily choral worship, a space for stillness and prayer, a place of pilgrimage and a venue for concerts, art and education.
