HYMN 170

COLLECT

Grant, we beseech you, merciful Lord,
to your faithful people pardon and peace,
that they may be cleansed from all their sins
and serve you with a quiet mind;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

OLD TESTAMENT READING Isaiah 53.4-end read by John Mitchell

Surely he has borne our infirmities and carried our diseases; yet we accounted him stricken, struck down by God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the punishment that made us whole, and by his bruises we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have all turned to our own way, and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth. By a perversion of justice he was taken away. Who could have imagined his future? For he was cut off from the land of the living, stricken for the transgression of my people. They made his grave with the wicked and his tomb with the rich, although he had done no violence, and there was no deceit in his mouth. Yet it was the will of the Lord to crush him with pain.

When you make his life an offering for sin, he shall see his offspring, and shall prolong his days; through him the will of the Lord shall prosper. Out of his anguish he shall see light; he shall find satisfaction through his knowledge. The righteous one, my servant, shall make many righteous, and he shall bear their iniquities.

In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

GOSPEL READING Mark 10.35-45

Choir Alleluia, alleluia.

All Alleluia, alleluia.

Choir Jesus said: I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life.
No one can come to the Father except through me.

All Alleluia, alleluia.

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to Jesus and said to him, 'Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you.' And he said to them, 'What is it you want me to do for you?' And they said to him, 'Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory.' But Jesus said to them, 'You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?' They replied, 'We are able.' Then Jesus said to them, 'The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared.'

When the ten heard this, they began to be angry with James and John. So Jesus called them and said to them, 'You know that among the Gentiles those whom they recognize as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them. But it is not so among you; but whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all. For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Alleluia, alleluia.

You who truly suffered and were sacrificed on the cross for mankind.
From whose pierced flank
flowed water and blood:
Be a foretaste for us
In the trial of death.*

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Father of light,
in whom is no change or shadow of turning,

where your whole creation will be made perfect
in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Please pick up a flyer, or an additional one for friends. Further details are on the Cathedral website.

Receiving Communion at home

There are several reasons why you might find yourself unable to come to the cathedral to worship -a short or longer spell of ill health or convalescence; a period of inclement weather; family circumstances or some other reason. Whatever the case you will be missed. It is important to continue to receive the sacraments regularly and to have a sense of your continued membership of the Christian community here. The clergy and some Pastoral Assistants are very willing to visit you at home and bring Holy Communion to you. This is a tangible sign of God's love and care and of your inclusion, although absent, in the cathedral fellowship. Please speak to one of the clergy or contact them by phone or email if we can help you in this way.

Cathedral Choir CD

Two weeks ago the Cathedral Choir spent four nights recording a disc of music for Holy Week and Easter to be released in the New Year. The choir gave of its very best in what will be a wonderful reflection of music for that liturgical period, and we will let you know in time how it will be made available both through the Cathedral shop, other retail outlets and online. You will find many favourites there as we journey from Palm Sunday to Easter Day itself – the title of the disc is to be 'Christ Rising'.

Your serving team needs you!

As the Cathedral's Head Server, I count myself very lucky to have inherited a team of dedicated and competent servers who are always ready to go the extra mile in support of the Cathedral's liturgical needs. Servers are the people whom you see carrying the processional cross, processional torches, or the thurible when incense is used. They also assist the clergy in several ways, most obviously in the Eucharist by bringing Communion vessels to the Altar, in holding the reserve consecrated bread and wine during Communion, and when clearing up at the end of the liturgy.

Being a server involves a real commitment, but it is also very rewarding for servers make a significant contribution to the worship of the Cathedral.

For various reasons, our numbers have declined recently, and it would be very helpful if we were able to recruit some new members to the team.

For most serving duties, it is suggested that members of the team should be at least fourteen years of age, and they must have been confirmed. There is no upper age limit! Men and women are equally welcome in the team, and previous experience is not necessary; full training will be given.

Servers under the age of fourteen, whether or not confirmed, can serve as boat bearers on those occasions when incense is used, and will be able to move on to other duties in the course of time. If you think that the ministry of a server might be for you, please speak to Canon Paul, or contact either me, Richard North, on 01252 794802, or the Deputy Head Server, Donald Thompson, on 01784 434391; or speak to one of us at the Cathedral.

Guildford Cathedral Pilgrimage to Walsingham in 2019

GUILDFORD
CATHEDRAL

GUILDFORD CATHEDRAL is a place of prayer, reflection, work and celebration, held in particular affection by the many thousands of people who helped build it by buying a brick. There is much to offer to visitors and to those who are looking for a church community to call home. All regular weekday and Sunday services are open to all. The beautiful building and the excellent choral tradition contribute to making our Cathedral a place to which, once visited, you will want to return. As well as the rhythm of daily worship we maintain an exciting programme of arts, events, lectures, workshops, exhibitions and concerts.

The Cathedral is a centre for worship and mission to support the ministry of the Bishop in faith and engagement. The Cathedral is a sacred space and an open community of people who together engage with God and the wider world, for the common good. It is a focus and resource for the whole community: a place of daily choral worship, a space for stillness and prayer, a place of pilgrimage and a venue for concerts, art and education.
