So also your judgements stand firm this day :

For all things are your servants.

If your law had not been my delight :

I should have perished in my trouble. Response

I will never forget your commandments :

For by them you have given me life.

I am yours O save me :

For I have sought your commandments.

The wicked have waited for me to destroy me :

But I will meditate on your testimonies.

I have seen and end of all perfection :

But your commandment knows no bounds. Response

NEW TESTAMENT READING Ephesians 2.19-end read by Richard Lloyd

So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are citizens with the saints and also members of the household of God, built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the cornerstone. In him the whole structure is joined together and grows into a holy temple in the Lord; in whom you also are built together spiritually into a dwelling-place for God.

GOSPEL READING John 15.17-end

Choir Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

All Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Choir I call you friends, says the Lord, because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father.

All Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

Jesus said, 'I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another.' 'If the world hates you, be aware that it hated me before it hated you. If you belonged to the world, the world would love you as its own. Because you do not belong to the world, but I have chosen you out of the world - therefore the world hates you. Remember the word that I said to you, “Servants are not greater than their master.” If they persecuted me, they will persecute you; if they kept my word, they will keep yours also. But they will do all these things to you on account of my name, because they do not know him who sent me. If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have sin; but now they have no excuse for their sin. Whoever hates me hates my Father also. If I had not done among them the works that no one else did, they would not have sin. But now they have seen and hated both me and my Father. It was to fulfil the word that is written in their law, “They hated me without a cause.” ‘When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father, he will testify on my behalf. You also are to testify because you have been with me from the beginning.’

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

SERMON Canon Julie Gittoes

INTERCESSIONS led by James Luckey

MOTET O Lord increase my faith Orlando Gibbons (1583-1625)

O Lord, increase my faith strengthen me
and confirm me in thy true faith,
endue me with wisdom,
charity, chastity and patience
in all my adversity.
Sweet Jesus, say Amen.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Lord God, the source of truth and love,
keep us faithful to the apostles' teaching and fellowship,
united in prayer and the breaking of bread,
and one in joy and simplicity of heart,
in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

HYMN 222

ORGAN Fugue in Eb (BWV 552.ii) Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)

TE DEUM in Bb Charles Villiers Stanford (1852-1924)

READINGS Isaiah 45.18-end; Luke 6.12-16

ANTHEM Give us the wings of faith Ernest Bullock (1890-1979)

Give us the wings of faith to rise
Within the veil, and see
The Saints above, how great their joys,
How bright their glories be.

We ask them whence their victory came;
They, with one united breath,
Ascribe their conquest to the Lamb,
Their triumph to his death.

They marked the footsteps that he trod,
His zeal inspired their breast,
And, following their incarnate God,
They reached their promised rest.

text: Isaac Watts (1674-1748)

Wholeness and Healing - Saturday 3 November

Since the early days of the Church, human touch and anointing with oil have played an important role in worship and pastoral care, symbolising both comfort and healing. The next Eucharist of Wholeness and Healing is Saturday 3 November. You may like prayer for yourself or for another. There is no need to say what the need is – God knows our hearts. All are welcome. The service is in the Lady Chapel and begins at 9.00am and lasts about 40 minutes.

The Big Draw – Thank you!

A huge thank you to Louise Kenyon and her team of volunteers who led and enabled a wonderful Activity Day last Wednesday as we participated in the nationwide Big Draw festival. We welcomed more than 200 people, more than half that number were children. These Activity Days are great fun and growing in popularity. In order to continue to deliver them in such professional and satisfying ways we need more volunteers. There are many ways to be part of this important part of the Cathedral's ministry. Full training, induction and support is provided.

You may want to volunteer to help with just one, or every Activity Day, or those days which best suit your many other commitments. Our next Activity Day is on Sunday 9 December and we expect a very good number to attend for Nativity Family Fun from 2.30 to 4.30pm. If this is something you'd like to consider being a part of please contact Louise at louise@guildford-cathedral.org

MacMillan Coffee Morning - thank you

Thank you to everyone who participated in the MacMillan Coffee Morning. We collected £567.89 in donations, and with the gift-aid claim this will be boosted to make a fantastic £656.01

Coins Scheme

The Cathedral invites donations of coins and notes of any currency world-wide, no matter how old or out of date, to help with fundraising. Our total since 2006 is £18,770. Packets may be left with the Office or Sacristy. Thank you to all our donors.

Available immediately on an Assured Short hold tenancy. If you know of any potential interest please contact Stephen Bourne on 07768597270. Thank you

Receiving Communion at home

There are several reasons why you might find yourself unable to come to the cathedral to worship -a short or longer spell of ill health or convalescence; a period of inclement weather; family circumstances or some other reason. Whatever the case you will be missed. It is important to continue to receive the sacraments regularly and to have a sense of your continued membership of the Christian community here. The clergy and some Pastoral Assistants are very willing to visit you at home and bring Holy Communion to you. This is a tangible sign of God's love and care and of your inclusion, although absent, in the cathedral fellowship. Please speak to one of the clergy or contact them by phone or email if we can help you in this way.

Your serving team needs you!

As the Cathedral's Head Server, I count myself very lucky to have inherited a team of dedicated and competent servers who are always ready to go the extra mile in support of the Cathedral's liturgical needs. Servers are the people whom you see carrying the processional cross, processional torches, or the thurible when incense is used. They also assist the clergy in several ways, most obviously in the Eucharist by bringing Communion vessels to the Altar, in holding the reserve consecrated bread and wine during Communion, and when clearing up at the end of the liturgy.

Being a server involves a real commitment, but it is also very rewarding for servers make a significant contribution to the worship of the Cathedral.

For various reasons, our numbers have declined recently, and it would be very helpful if we were able to recruit some new members to the team.

For most serving duties, it is suggested that members of the team should be at least fourteen years of age, and they must have been confirmed. There is no upper age limit! Men and women are equally welcome in the team, and previous experience is not necessary; full training will be given.

Servers under the age of fourteen, whether or not confirmed, can serve as boat bearers on those occasions when incense is used, and will be able to move on to other duties in the course of time. If you think that the ministry of a server might be for you, please speak to Canon Paul, or contact either me, Richard North, on 01252 794802, or the Deputy Head Server, Donald Thompson, on 01784 434391; or speak to one of us at the Cathedral.

Cathedral Choir CD

Three weeks ago the Cathedral Choir spent four nights recording a disc of music for Holy Week and Easter to be released in the New Year. The choir gave of its very best in what will be a wonderful reflection of music for that liturgical period, and we will let you know in time how it will be made available both through the Cathedral shop, other retail outlets and online. You will find many favourites there as we journey from Palm Sunday to Easter Day itself – the title of the disc is to be 'Christ Rising'.

CATHEDRAL

GUILDFORD CATHEDRAL is a place of prayer, reflection, work and celebration, held in particular affection by the many thousands of people who helped build it by buying a brick. There is much to offer to visitors and to those who are looking for a church community to call home. All regular weekday and Sunday services are open to all. The beautiful building and the excellent choral tradition contribute to making our Cathedral a place to which, once visited, you will want to return. As well as the rhythm of daily worship we maintain an exciting programme of arts, events, lectures, workshops, exhibitions and concerts.

The Cathedral is a centre for worship and mission to support the ministry of the Bishop in faith and engagement. The Cathedral is a sacred space and an open community of people who together engage with God and the wider world, for the common good. It is a focus and resource for the whole community: a place of daily choral worship, a space for stillness and prayer, a place of pilgrimage and a venue for concerts, art and education.
