HYMN 250 (verses 1-4, 7)

COLLECT

Almighty God,
you have created the heavens and the earth
and made us in your own image:
teach us to discern your hand in all your works
and your likeness in all your children;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit reigns supreme over all things,
now and for ever. Amen

OLD TESTAMENT READING Genesis 2.4b-9, 15-end read by Sarah Hawken

In the day that the Lord God made the earth and the heavens, when no plant of the field was yet in the earth and no herb of the field had yet sprung up - for the Lord God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was no one to till the ground; but a stream would rise from the earth, and water the whole face of the ground - then the Lord God formed man from the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and the man became a living being. And the Lord God planted a garden in Eden, in the east; and there he put the man whom he had formed. Out of the ground the Lord God made to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food, the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. The Lord God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to till it and keep it. And the Lord God commanded the man, 'You may freely eat of every tree of the garden; but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall die.' Then the Lord God said, 'It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper as his partner.' So out of the ground the Lord God formed every animal of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called each living creature, that was its name. The man gave names to all cattle, and to the birds of the air, and to every animal of the field; but for the man there was not found a helper as his partner. So the Lord God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept; then he took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. And the rib that the Lord God had taken from the man he made into a woman and brought her to the man. Then the man said, 'This at last is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; this one shall be called Woman, for out of Man this one was taken.' Therefore a man leaves his father and his mother and clings to his wife, and they become one flesh. And the man and his wife were both naked, and were not ashamed.

PSALM 65

Praise is due to you, O God, in Zion :

To you that answer prayer shall vows be paid.

To you shall all flesh come to confess their sins.

Happy are they whom you choose and draw to your courts to dwell there :

We shall be satisfied with the blessings of your house;

even of your holy temple. Response

With wonders you will answer us in your righteousness, O God of our salvation :

O hope of all the ends of the earth and of the farthest seas.

In your strength you set fast the mountains :

And are girded about with might.

You still the raging of the seas :

The roaring of their waves and the clamour of the peoples.

Those who dwell at the ends of the earth tremble at your marvels :

The gates of the morning and evening sing your praise. Response

You visit the earth and water it :

you make it very plenteous.

The river of God is full of water :

you prepare grain for your people, for so you provide for the earth.

You drench the furrows and smooth out the ridge :

you soften the ground with showers and bless its increase.

You crown the year with your goodness :

and your paths overflow with plenty.

May the pastures of the wilderness flow with goodness :

and the hills be girded with joy.

May the meadows be clothed with flocks of sheep : and the valleys stand so thick with corn that they shall laugh and sing. Response

NEW TESTAMENT READING Revelation 4 read by Bob Ellison

After this I looked, and there in heaven a door stood open! And the first voice, which I had heard speaking to me like a trumpet, said, 'Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after this.' At once I was in the spirit, and there in heaven stood a throne, with one seated on the throne! And the one seated there looks like jasper and cornelian, and around the throne is a rainbow that looks like an emerald. Around the throne are twenty-four thrones, and seated on the thrones are twenty-four elders, dressed in white robes, with golden crowns on their heads. Coming from the throne are flashes of lightning, and rumblings and peals of thunder, and in front of the throne burn seven flaming torches, which are the seven spirits of God; and in front of the throne there is something like a sea of glass, like crystal. Around the throne, and on each side of the throne, are four living creatures, full of eyes in front and behind: the first living creature like a lion, the second living creature like an ox, the third living creature with a face like a human face, and the fourth living creature like a flying eagle. And the four living creatures, each of them with six wings, are full of eyes all around and inside. Day and night without ceasing they sing, 'Holy, holy, holy, the Lord God the Almighty, who was and is and is to come.' And whenever the living creatures give glory and honour and thanks to the one who is seated on the throne, who lives for ever and ever, the twenty-four elders fall before the one who is seated on the throne and worship the one who lives for ever and ever; they cast their crowns before the throne, singing, 'You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honour and power, for you created all things, and by your will they existed and were created.'

GOSPEL READING Luke 8.22-25

Choir Alleluia, alleluia.

All Alleluia, alleluia.

Choir Open our heart, O Lord, to accept the words of your Son.

All Alleluia, alleluia.

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

One day Jesus got into a boat with his disciples, and he said to them, 'Let us go across to the other side of the lake.' So they put out, and while they were sailing he fell asleep. A gale swept down on the lake, and the boat was filling with water, and they were in danger. They went to him and woke him up, shouting, 'Master, Master, we are perishing!' And he woke up and rebuked the wind and the raging waves; they ceased, and there was a calm. He said to them, 'Where is your faith?' They were afraid and amazed, and said to one another, 'Who then is this, that he commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him?'

This is the Gospel of the Lord

All Alleluia, alleluia.

Wholeness and Healing - Saturday 2 March

Since the early days of the Church, human touch and anointing with oil have played an important role in worship and pastoral care, symbolising both comfort and healing. The next Eucharist of Wholeness and Healing is Saturday 2 March. You may like prayer for yourself or for another. There is no need to say what the need is – God knows our hearts. All are welcome. The service is in the Lady Chapel and begins at 9.00am and lasts about 40 minutes.

Crafty helpers wanted - Tuesday 5 March, 10am to 12.30pm

All are welcome to join in an informal session in the crypt kitchen, to prepare material for nearly 300 children attending our school Easter workshops in March. Coffee provided, contact Becki on schools@guildford-cathedral.org for more information or simply turn up.

Cathedral Tots - Wednesday 6 March, 10 to 11am

You are invited to a special family friendly informal service for toddlers and their grown-ups, with story time, free play, craft and refreshments. This service takes place on Ash Wednesday and our theme will be Jesus in the Wilderness. All are welcome, no booking necessary. Free admission.

Girl Choristers' Concert, St Catherine's School, Bramley, 9 March

On Saturday 9 March the girl choristers will give a free concert at 7.30pm in The Anniversary Hall of St Catherine's School, as part of their annual residential weekend. They will be singing music from the twentieth and twenty-first centuries, from Maurice Duruflé and Thomas Hewitt Jones, to Mark Blatchly and Richard Rodney Bennett (Letters to Lindbergh). Entrance is free, with a retiring collection. Please do come and support the choristers in this exciting endeavour.

2019 Lent Talks – Thursdays 14, 21 and 28 March, 8pm

The theme of this year's series is Christ in the Wilderness. Each session will begin at 8pm in the Lady Chapel. After a talk by Canon Julie, there will be an opportunity for Q&A before Compline sung by the lay clerks at 8.30pm. The topics are: 'Stones and Bread', 'If you are the Son of God' and 'Kingdoms of the World'.

Second Sunday fellowship after Cathedral Eucharist

Could we please remind everyone to bring their own mug/cup on the second Sunday. We have mugs for visitors and for those who occasionally forget (like the Dean) but we were still a bit short in February. Reusable mugs are available for sale in the Cathedral Shop and at the Fairtrade Stall. If there is anyone who isn't already on the Coffee team who would be able to assist with the serving on a very rare basis, could they please get in touch with Caroline Austin. And many thanks to John and Caroline for taking on this important ministry.

Fairtrade Fortnight 25 February - 10 March

Please stock up with your Fair Trade items this week as unfortunately there will be no Fair Trade stall next Sunday 3 March but back to normal on Sunday 10 March when there will be a cake stall in aid of Traidcraft Exchange. There are also mini-events and promotions happening in Seasons Café throughout Fairtrade Fortnight. Do pop in and support this worthy cause.

Walking and Singing for Cathedral Choir Tour

On Saturday 16 March our amazing choristers will be taking on the challenge of a 5km Singathon around the Cathedral. As they walk they will also sing as they seek to raise funds to enable everyone to take part in the tour. £500 has been raised so far. If you'd like to support them please go to their JustGiving page justgiving.com/fundraising/guildford-cathedral-choir

Canon Julie

Canon Julie's final Sunday here will be 12 May and there will be a Reception after Evensong. Her Induction at Vicar of St Mary's with Christ Church, Hendon will take place on Wednesday 19 June. We will be organizing a thank you gift and a coach to Hendon in the near future. Please keep Julie in your prayers.

Mothering Sunday preparation on Saturday 30 March

We would love to be able to give out posies of daffodils to members of the congregation on Refreshment (Mothering) Sunday on March 31 this year. In order to do this, we will need the help of some volunteers to put these together in the Cathedral on the Saturday morning 30 March. If we don't have enough volunteers we won't be able to prepare posies. If you can help, please let Canon Paul know on paul.smith@guildford-cathedral.org or 01483 547 865

Lead Choir Chaperone

The Cathedral Choir is hugely grateful to its volunteer chaperones who help us to fulfil our safeguarding requirement and duty of care for our choristers. We are looking to recruit a choir chaperone who can take overall charge of this extremely important facet of Cathedral life. GUILDFORD
CATHEDRAL

GUILDFORD CATHEDRAL is a place of prayer, reflection, work and celebration, held in particular affection by the many thousands of people who helped build it by buying a brick. There is much to offer to visitors and to those who are looking for a church community to call home. All regular weekday and Sunday services are open to all. The beautiful building and the excellent choral tradition contribute to making our Cathedral a place to which, once visited, you will want to return. As well as the rhythm of daily worship we maintain an exciting programme of arts, events, lectures, workshops, exhibitions and concerts.

The Cathedral is a centre for worship and mission to support the ministry of the Bishop in faith and engagement. The Cathedral is a sacred space and an open community of people who together engage with God and the wider world, for the common good. It is a focus and resource for the whole community: a place of daily choral worship, a space for stillness and prayer, a place of pilgrimage and a venue for concerts, art and education.
