COLLECT

Almighty God,
whose Son Jesus Christ is the resurrection and the life:
raise us, who trust in him,
from the death of sin to the life of righteousness,
that we may seek those things which are above,
where he reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

OLD TESTAMENT READING Genesis 7.1-15, 11-18; 8.6-18; 9.8-13
read by Matt O'Grady

Then the Lord said to Noah, 'Go into the ark, you and all your household, for I have seen that you alone are righteous before me in this generation. Take with you seven pairs of all clean animals, the male and its mate; and a pair of the animals that are not clean, the male and its mate; and seven pairs of the birds of the air also, male and female, to keep their kind alive on the face of all the earth. For in seven days I will send rain on the earth for forty days and forty nights; and every living thing that I have made I will blot out from the face of the ground.' And Noah did all that the Lord had commanded him.

In the six-hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on that day all the fountains of the great deep burst forth, and the windows of the heavens were opened. The rain fell on the earth for forty days and forty nights. On the very same day Noah with his sons, Shem and Ham and Japheth, and Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons, entered the ark, they and every wild animal of every kind, and all domestic animals of every kind, and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, and every bird of every kind – every bird, every winged creature. They went into the ark with Noah, two and two of all flesh in which there was the breath of life. And those that entered, male and female of all flesh, went in as God had commanded him; and the Lord shut him in.

The flood continued for forty days on the earth; and the waters increased, and bore up the ark, and it rose high above the earth. The waters swelled and increased greatly on the earth; and the ark floated on the face of the waters. At the end of forty days Noah opened the window of the ark that he had made and sent out the raven; and it went to and fro until the waters were dried up from the earth. Then he sent out the dove from him, to see if the waters had subsided from the face of the ground; but the dove found no place to set its foot, and it returned to him to the ark, for the waters were still on the face of the whole earth. So he put out his hand and took it and brought it into the ark with him. He waited another seven days, and again he sent out the dove from the ark; and the dove came back to him in the evening, and there in its beak was a freshly plucked olive leaf; so Noah knew that the waters had subsided from the earth. Then he waited another seven days, and sent out the dove; and it did not return to him any more.

In the six hundred and first year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from the earth; and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and saw that the face of the ground was drying. In the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry. Then God said to Noah, 'Go out of the ark, you and your wife, and your sons and your sons' wives with you.

Bring out with you every living thing that is with you of all flesh – birds and animals and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth – so that they may abound on the earth, and be fruitful and multiply on the earth.' So Noah went out with his sons and his wife and his sons' wives.

Then God said to Noah and to his sons with him, 'As for me, I am establishing my covenant with you and your descendants after you, and with every living creature that is with you, the birds, the domestic animals, and every animal of the earth with you, as many as came out of the ark. I establish my covenant with you, that never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of a flood, and never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth.' God said, 'This is the sign of the covenant that I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for all future generations: I have set my bow in the clouds, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and the earth.

PSALM 23

I will dwell in the house of the Lord for e - ver.

The Lord is my shepherd :
therefore can I lack nothing.
He makes me lie down in green pastures :
and leads me beside still waters. Response

He shall refresh my soul :

and guide me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil :
for you are with me, your rod and your staff comfort me. Response

You spread a table before me in the presence of those who trouble me :
you have anointed my head with oil and my cup shall be full.

Surely goodness and loving mercy shall follow me all the days of my life :
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever. Response

NEW TESTAMENT READING Acts 9.36-43 read by Katherine Dienes-Williams

Now in Joppa there was a disciple whose name was Tabitha, which in Greek is Dorcas. She was devoted to good works and acts of charity. At that time she became ill and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in a room upstairs. Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, who heard that Peter was there, sent two men to him with the request, 'Please come to us without delay.' So Peter got up and went with them; and when he arrived, they took him to the room upstairs. All the widows stood beside him, weeping and showing tunics and other clothing that Dorcas had made while she was with them. Peter put all of them outside, and then he knelt down and prayed. He turned to the body and said, 'Tabitha, get up.' Then she opened her eyes, and seeing Peter, she sat up. He gave her his hand and helped her up. Then calling the saints and widows, he showed her to be alive. This became known throughout Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. Meanwhile he stayed in Joppa for some time with a certain Simon, a tanner.

GOSPEL READING John 10.22-30

Choir Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

All Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Choir I am the good shepherd, says the Lord;
I know my own sheep and my own know me.

All Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

At that time the festival of the Dedication took place in Jerusalem. It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the portico of Solomon. So the Jews gathered around him and said to him, 'How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly.' Jesus answered, 'I have told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father's name testify to me; but you do not believe, because you do not belong to my sheep. My sheep hear my voice. I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one will snatch them out of my hand. What my Father has given me is greater than all else, and no one can snatch it out of the Father's hand. The Father and I are one.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

MOTET O Sacrum convivium Olivier Messiaen (1908-1992)

O sacrum convivium in quo Christus sumitur Recolitur memoria, passionis eius, mens impletur gratia.
Et futurae gloriae nobis pignus datur. Alleluia.

*O holy and sacred feast, wherein Christ is offered up.
We call to mind in grateful thanks, his most bitter passion, while our souls are filled with grace.
We beseech thee, grant to us everlasting glory. Alleluia.*

text: Antiphon for Second Vespers for Corpus Christi

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Merciful Father,
you gave your Son Jesus Christ to be the good shepherd, and in his love for us to lay down his life and rise again:
keep us always under his protection,
and give us grace to follow in his steps;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

ANTHEM Lo, the full final sacrifice Gerald Finzi (1901-1956)

Lo, the full, final Sacrifice on which all figures fix't their eyes.
The ransomed Isaac, and his ram; the Manna, and the Paschal Lamb.

Jesu master, just and true! Our food, and faithful shepherd too!

O let that love which thus makes thee mix with our low mortality, lift our lean souls, and set us up convictors of thine own full cup, co-heirs of saints. That so all may drink the same wine; and the same way.
Nor change the pasture, but the place to feed of thee in thine own face.

O dear memorial of that death which lives still, and allows us breath!
Rich, royal food! Bountiful bread! Whose use denies us to the dead!
Live ever bread of loves, and be my life, my soul, my surer self to me.

Help Lord, my faith, my hope increase; and fill my portion in thy peace.
Give love for life;
nor let my days grow, but in new powers to thy name and praise.

Rise, Royal Sion! Rise and sing thy soul's kind shepherd, thy heart's king.
Stretch all thy powers; call if you can harps of heaven to hands of man.
This sovereign subject sits above the best ambition of thy love.

Lo, the Bread of Life, this day's triumphant text provokes thy praise.
The living and life-giving bread, to the great twelve distributed when Life, himself, at point to die of love, was his own Legacy.

O soft self-wounding Pelican! Whose breast weeps balm for wounded man.
All this way bend thy benign flood to a bleeding heart that gasps for blood.
That blood, whose least drops sovereign be to wash my worlds of sins from me.
Come love! Come Lord! and that long day for which I languish, come away.
When this dry soul those eyes shall see, and drink the unseal'd source of thee.
When glory's sun faith's shades shall chase, and for thy veil give me thy face.
Amen.

After the Cathedral Eucharist this morning the Boy Choristers are giving an informal concert with a 'Julie' theme as a particular thank you from them. Katherine reminds us that conversation over coffee should continue whilst the boys are performing and thanks everyone for their support. Julie will be licensed as Vicar of St Mary with Christ Church, Hendon in London Diocese on Wednesday 19 June. Please pray for her and for the people of Hendon as they all prepare for this next stage of witness and mission.

You should obtain permission of the person or their family. People are kept on the daily list for 4 weeks in the first instance. We also keep a longer list of those for whom prayer is ongoing.

Eco-Tip Number Three

Eco tips for shopping

Before going shopping check your cupboards and fridge/freezer. Are there items in there which need using up? Make a shopping list to avoid buying things that you do not really need so you're not adding to waste. Remember to take reusable shopping bags, coffee cup/water bottles to avoid adding to waste. Try not to choose items in single use plastics e.g. plastic wrapped fruit and vegetable. Buy non-perishable regularly used items in bulk. Farmers Markets are a great place to shop offering fresh, local, seasonal produce as well as supporting the local economy.

Summer Garden Party – Saturday 22 June, 5 to 8pm

Julian and Marion Roberts are holding a musical extravaganza in their stunning garden to raise funds for the Cathedral. This is open to all, with donations gratefully received on the night. You will enjoy music from Tim Asson's jazz band, Bishop Andrew, Canon Paul and others, and a delicious two course meal (including fizz and wine). Please email reception@guildford-cathedral.org to get your free ticket.

Chance for the Cathedral to win £1,000

The Cathedral has the chance to be awarded a £1,000 donation from Ecclesiastical (insurance providers). We need as many people as possible to nominate Guildford Cathedral by filling in a few details at www.ecclesiastical.com/movement-for-good (we are registration exempt). This will only take a moment or two of your time, deadline is this Friday 17 May. Any questions to Head of Fundraising susan@guildford-cathedral.org 01483 547878. Thanks in advance.

Raise money for the Cathedral by choosing Cavender's or Ecclesiastical

If you instruct Cavender's Estate Agent (cavenders.co.uk or 01483 457728) to sell or let we would receive a financial reward of £500 or £250. GUILDFORD
CATHEDRAL

GUILDFORD CATHEDRAL is a place of prayer, reflection, work and celebration, held in particular affection by the many thousands of people who helped build it by buying a brick. There is much to offer to visitors and to those who are looking for a church community to call home. All regular weekday and Sunday services are open to all. The beautiful building and the excellent choral tradition contribute to making our Cathedral a place to which, once visited, you will want to return. As well as the rhythm of daily worship we maintain an exciting programme of arts, events, lectures, workshops, exhibitions and concerts.

The Cathedral is a centre for worship and mission to support the ministry of the Bishop in faith and engagement. The Cathedral is a sacred space and an open community of people who together engage with God and the wider world, for the common good. It is a focus and resource for the whole community: a place of daily choral worship, a space for stillness and prayer, a place of pilgrimage and a venue for concerts, art and education.
