HYMN 163

COLLECT

O God,

the strength of all those who put their trust in you,
mercifully accept our prayers
and, because through the weakness of our mortal nature
we can do no good thing without you,
grant us the help of your grace,
that in the keeping of your commandments
we may please you both in will and deed;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

OLD TESTAMENT READING Isaiah 65.1-9

I was ready to be sought out by those who did not ask, to be found by those who did not seek me. I said, 'Here I am, here I am', to a nation that did not call on my name. I held out my hands all day long to a rebellious people, who walk in a way that is not good, following their own devices; a people who provoke me to my face continually, sacrificing in gardens and offering incense on bricks; who sit inside tombs, and spend the night in secret places; who eat swine's flesh, with broth of abominable things in their vessels; who say, 'Keep to yourself, do not come near me, for I am too holy for you.'

These are a smoke in my nostrils, a fire that burns all day long. See, it is written before me: I will not keep silent, but I will repay; I will indeed repay into their laps their iniquities and their ancestors' iniquities together, says the Lord; because they offered incense on the mountains and reviled me on the hills, I will measure into their laps full payment for their actions.

Thus says the Lord: As the wine is found in the cluster, and they say, 'Do not destroy it, for there is a blessing in it', so I will do for my servants' sake, and not destroy them all. I will bring forth descendants from Jacob, and from Judah inheritors of my mountains; my chosen shall inherit it, and my servants shall settle there.

PSALM 22.19-28

Be not far from me, O Lord.

Be not far from me O Lord :

You are my strength hasten to help me.

Deliver my soul from the sword :

My poor life from the power of the dog.

Save me from the lion's mouth :

From the horns of wild oxen, you have answered me! R.

'Praise the Lord you that fear him :

'O seed of Jacob, glorify him, stand in awe of him O seed of Israel.

'For he has not despised nor abhorred the suffering of the poor :

'neither has he hidden his face from them;

but when they cried to him he heard him.'

From you comes my praise in the great congregation :

I will perform my vows in the presence of those that fear you.

The poor shall eat and be satisfied;

those who seek the Lord shall praise him :

their hearts shall live for ever. R.

All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the Lord :

and all the families of the nations shall bow before him.

For the kingdom is the Lord's :

And he rules over the nations. R.

NEW TESTAMENT READING Galatians 3.23-end

Now before faith came, we were imprisoned and guarded under the law until faith would be revealed. Therefore the law was our disciplinarian until Christ came, so that we might be justified by faith. But now that faith has come, we are no longer subject to a disciplinarian, for in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith. As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus. And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to the promise.

GOSPEL READING Luke 8.26-39

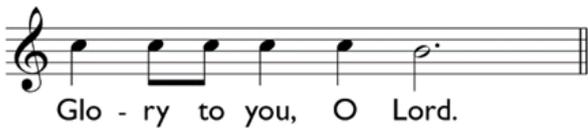

Choir Alleluia, alleluia.

All Alleluia, alleluia.

Choir O that today you would listen to his voice;
Harden not your hearts.

All Alleluia, alleluia.

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Then they arrived at the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. As he stepped out on land, a man of the city who had demons met him. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he did not live in a house but in the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he fell down before him and shouted at the top of his voice, 'What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me' - for Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many times it had seized him; he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the wilds.) Jesus then asked him, 'What is your name?' He said, 'Legion'; for many demons had entered him. They begged him not to order them to go back into the abyss.

Now there on the hillside a large herd of swine was feeding; and the demons begged Jesus to let them enter these. So he gave them permission. Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned.

When the swineherds saw what had happened, they ran off and told it in the city and in the country. Then people came out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. Those who had seen it told them how the one who had been possessed by demons had been healed. Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them; for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned. The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but Jesus sent him away, saying, 'Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you.' So he went away, proclaiming throughout the city how much Jesus had done for him.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Alleluia, alleluia.

ANTHEM This is the record of John Orlando Gibbons (1560-1628)

This is the record of John,
when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him,
Who art thou?

And he confessed and denied not, and said plainly,
I am not the Christ.

And they asked him, What art thou then? Art thou Elias?

And he said, I am not.

Art thou the prophet?

And he answered, No.

Then said they unto him,

What art thou? that we may give an answer unto them that sent us.

What sayest thou of thyself?

And he said, I am the voice of him that crieth in the wilderness,

Make straight the way of the Lord.

SERMON The Very Reverend Dianna Gwilliams

ORGAN Christ unser Herr zum Jordan kam (BWV 684) J. S. Bach (1685-1750)

Her true passion is drawing people together, sharing her love for both art and nature. Many thanks to our helpers. We are at £19,344. Also, our Cathedral collecting boxes now accept overseas currencies. All proceeds go to help Cathedral funds.

The Food Bank

Many of you will have read articles in the Surrey Advertiser and The Guildford Dragon about Food Poverty in Guildford following the publishing of a report by a Guildford Borough Council Task Force. The Food Bank have asked that we add this report to our congregation in our News Sheet this week.

“The people we serve come to us for a variety of reasons: Benefit delays or cuts; Debt; Low Income; Sickness; Domestic Violence etc. Some only come once or twice to help them over an immediate crisis but others have more complex issues that are not quickly resolved so will need our help over a number of weeks. We are delighted that the council is looking into other ways to help those suffering 'Food Poverty' in our area but, meanwhile, we are hugely grateful for your prayers and practical support, through your donations, which will enable us to continue for as long as we are needed.

Rosie & Heather, Joint Coordinators, North Guildford Food Bank”

GUILDFORD
CATHEDRAL

GUILDFORD CATHEDRAL is a place of prayer, reflection, work and celebration, held in particular affection by the many thousands of people who helped build it by buying a brick. There is much to offer to visitors and to those who are looking for a church community to call home. All regular weekday and Sunday services are open to all. The beautiful building and the excellent choral tradition contribute to making our Cathedral a place to which, once visited, you will want to return. As well as the rhythm of daily worship we maintain an exciting programme of arts, events, lectures, workshops, exhibitions and concerts.

The Cathedral is a centre for worship and mission to support the ministry of the Bishop in faith and engagement. The Cathedral is a sacred space and an open community of people who together engage with God and the wider world, for the common good. It is a focus and resource for the whole community: a place of daily choral worship, a space for stillness and prayer, a place of pilgrimage and a venue for concerts, art and education.
