

GUILDFORD
CATHEDRAL

Welcome

The Fourteenth Sunday after Trinity

Sunday 22 September 2019

SUNDAY SCHOOL for 3-11 year olds takes place in the Library. There is a DIY crèche in the Exhibition Room (next to the Library) for under 3s.

HYMN BOOKS For services in the Nave, hymn books and Books of Common Prayer can be found behind the kneeler on the seat in front of you.

DEDICATION OF NEW PIANO At the conclusion of the Cathedral Eucharist our new piano will be dedicated to the glory of God and a piano duet will replace an organ voluntary. Many thanks to The Friends of Guildford Cathedral for the generous support which has enabled us to buy the piano.

COFFEE AND FELLOWSHIP Coffee and tea and other refreshments available at the back of Seasons. No need to queue.

GIVING Regular worshippers are asked to join the Planned Giving Scheme. For more information please ask a Steward. Visitors and UK taxpayers are asked to use the Gift Aid envelope for their offering towards the work and worship of the Cathedral, or donate via the contactless donation box at the west end of the back of the Cathedral.

COMMUNITY If you would like to contact the clergy their details are on the back of the News Sheet. If you have been a regular at the Cathedral for six months or more, please ensure that your name is added to the Cathedral Community Roll – forms available from the Stewards.

NEWS SHEETS The last six editions can be viewed from the website <https://www.guildford-cathedral.org/news>

HYMN 418

COLLECT

Almighty God,
whose only Son has opened for us a new and living way into your presence:
give us pure hearts and steadfast wills to worship you in spirit and in truth;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

OLD TESTAMENT Amos 8.4-7 read by David Sharpin

Hear this, you that trample on the needy, and bring to ruin the poor of the land, saying, 'When will the new moon be over so that we may sell grain; and the sabbath, so that we may offer wheat for sale? We will make the ephah small and the shekel great, and practise deceit with false balances, buying the poor for silver and the needy for a pair of sandals, and selling the sweepings of the wheat.' The Lord has sworn by the pride of Jacob: Surely I will never forget any of their deeds.

PSALM 113

From the ri-sing of the sun to its sett-ing let the name of the Lord be praised.

Give praise, you servants of the Lord :

O praise the Name of the Lord.

Blessèd be the Name of the Lord :

From this time forth for evermore.

From the rising of the sun to its setting :

Let the name of the Lord be praised.

The Lord is high above all nations :

And his glory above the heavens. Response

Who is like the Lord our God that has his throne so high :
yet humbles himself to behold the things of heaven and earth
He raises the poor from the dust.
And lifts the needy from the ashes,
To set them with princes :
with the princes of his people.
He makes the barren woman a place in the house :
And makes her a joyful mother of children. Response

NEW TESTAMENT | Timothy 2.1-7 read by Shirley-Margaret Lloyd

First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings should be made for everyone, for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity. This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God; there is also one mediator between God and humankind, Christ Jesus, himself human, who gave himself a ransom for all - this was attested at the right time. For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

GOSPEL READING Luke 16.1-13

Choir Alleluia, alleluia.

All Alleluia, alleluia.

Choir Open our heart, O Lord, to accept the words of your Son.

All Alleluia, alleluia.

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Then Jesus said to the disciples, 'There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was squandering his property. So he summoned him and said to him, "What is this that I hear about you? Give me an account of your management, because you cannot be my manager any longer." Then the manager said to himself, "What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. I have decided what to do so that, when I am dismissed as manager, people may welcome me into their homes." So, summoning his master's debtors one by one, he asked the first, "How much do you owe my master?" He answered, "A hundred jugs of olive oil.” He said to him, “Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifty.” Then he asked another, “And how much do you owe?” He replied, “A hundred containers of wheat.” He said to him, “Take your bill and make it eighty.” And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of dishonest wealth so that when it is gone, they may welcome you into the eternal homes. ‘Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much. If then you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth,* who will entrust to you the true riches? And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own? No slave can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.’

This is the Gospel of the Lord

All Alleluia, alleluia.

SERMON The Very Reverend Dianna Gwilliams

INTERCESSIONS led by Canon Mavis Wilson

HYMN 505

MOTET O Salutaris hostia Thomas Tallis (1505-1585)

O salutaris hostia,

Quae caeli pandis ostium:

Bella premunt hostilia,

Da robur, fer auxilium.

O loving Saviour, (save us all)

Throw open wide the heavenly gate:

We are threatened by sin and hate:

Give strength to help us lest we fall.

ANTHEM Verleih uns Frieden Felix Mendelsshon (1809-1847)

Verleih uns Frieden gnädiglich, Herr Gott, zu unsern Zeiten.
Es ist doch ja kein anderer nicht,
der für uns könnte streiten,
denn du, unser Gott, alleine.

*In these our days so perilous,
Lord, peace in mercy send us;
No God but thee can fight for us,
No God but thee defend us;
Thou our only God and Saviour.*

ANTHEM Blessed city, heavenly Salem Edward Cuthbert Bairstow (1874-1946)

Blessed city, heav'nly Salem, vision dear of peace and love,
who of living stones art builded in the height of heaven above and by angel hands apparelled as a bride doth earthward move.

Out of heaven from God descending new and ready to be wed to thy Lord whose love espoused thee, fair adorned shalt thou be led.
All thy gates and all thy bulwarks of pure gold are fashioned.

Bright thy gates of pearl are shining,
Tthey are open evermore, and their well-earned rest attaining thither faithful souls do soar who for Christ's dear name in this world pain and tribulation bore.

Many a blow and biting sculpture polished well those stones elect in their places now compacted
By the heavenly architect, nevermore to leave the temple which with them the Lord hath decked.

To this temple when we call thee come, O Lord of Hosts, today:
with thy wonted loving-kindness hear thy servants as they pray and thy fullest benediction shed within its walls always.

SERMON The Reverend Neil Vigers

ORGAN Fanfare John Cook (1918-1984)

NOTICEBOARD

Prayer for Healing with anointing – TODAY

Prayer, laying on of hands and anointing is offered during the Cathedral Eucharist today. You may want prayer for healing for yourself or another person or you may have some other concern for which you would appreciate prayer. Anyone with any request is welcome. Please make your way to the Lady Chapel after you have received communion.

Shop and Seasons

The Cathedral Shop is open today from 11am to 12.30pm. The shop opens Monday to Saturday from 9.30am to 4.30pm (10am Tuesday). Seasons Café will be open from Monday to Sunday from 9am to 4.30pm. To book please contact seasonscathedral@thetipsypigs.co.uk or telephone 01483 563 841.

A wonderful opportunity

We are currently recruiting Volunteers for our Autumn Schools Workshops. You would be working with the Head of Family Engagement and Schools, sharing learning opportunities, stories and treasures of the cathedral with children and young people through a variety of activities. Commitment is flexible with a choice of regular or one-off sessions. We provide a friendly, supportive environment, in which volunteers are invited to contribute their skills and to grow in confidence and competence. Full training, induction and ongoing support is provided. For further information about this opportunity please contact our Volunteer Coordinator, Julie Mitchell: volunteer@guildford-cathedral.org or 01483 547885.

This Week in Seasons - British Food Fortnight & National Recycling Week

British Food Fortnight began yesterday and this week Seasons is providing a different British each day – why not come along and sample their delicious and varied menu. Seasons is playing their part in our quest to become a Gold Eco-Cathedral and marking National Recycling Week which begins tomorrow. Did you know that they work with various organisations recycling and reusing where possible. You may want to try one of our recent Eco-Tips and join in.

Flowers in the Cathedral

Thank you to June Hurst and Ash Floral Club for the beautiful flowers in the Cathedral this week.

Be a Chorister for a Day – Saturday 28 September, 2pm to 6pm

Boys aged 6-8 and girls aged 8-11 are very welcome to come along and try out singing with our Choir. For further information contact Carolyn Howard-Jones on 01483 547 868, or email liturgymusic@guildford-cathedral.org or on the cathedral website www.guildford-cathedral.org

God for Grown-ups

Would you like an opportunity to discuss issues of Christian faith and discipleship as they relate to contemporary 21st century life? Would you like to ask those tricky questions about Christian faith that you have wanted to ask for a long time? Would you be interested in preparing for confirmation as an adult? Would you like to know about Christian faith so that you can guide your children on their journey of faith? Then God for Grown-ups is for you! This 8 week course will be led by Canon Paul and take place at his home with an informal atmosphere over tea and cake. If you are interested, please speak to him or e-mail him on Paul.Smith@guildford-cathedral.org

Friends of Guildford Cathedral visit to Winchester

A Day Trip organised by The Friends of Guildford Cathedral will take place on Wednesday 27 November to Winchester Cathedral Christmas market (including a tour of the Cathedral). Anyone is welcome to join the trip. Tickets are £21 for members of the Friends and £23 for those who are not yet members of the Friends. Please contact Lisa Hatherall – Friends Secretary 01483 547 860 friends@guildford-cathedral.org

Safeguarding

Are you interested in joining our Safeguarding team? Following the audit in February and the appointment of Mary Morris as our Safeguarding Officer, the need for an Assistant to Mary has been identified. The Assistant would preferably be a regular attendee at Sunday services and well known to the Cathedral community. If you are interested in hearing more please contact Mary Morris 07949 685 683 / safeguarding@guildford-cathedral.org or Matt O'Grady 01483 547 864 / dops@guildford-cathedral.org We participated in a pilot Cathedral Safeguarding Audit earlier this year and the report is now available on our website or a paper copy is on the Guides Desk to read in situ if you prefer. Please do not remove it. <https://www.guildford-cathedral.org/safeguarding>

Shape of Sundays from 6 October

As from 6 October the 11.30am service on the first Sunday of the month will be a traditional rite Choral Eucharist. This will reduce the number of Sundays during the year when the Order One traditional rite is replaced with Order Two contemporary rite. The 9.45am Cathedral Eucharist will be a shorter service and one which has more congregational participation so will be more accessible for those who have never been to church or who have fallen out of the habit and would like to be able to introduce their children or grandchildren to worship. This development will enhance what we offer on Sundays. We will continue to offer Choral Mattins on the third, fourth and fifth Sundays of the month. As a cathedral community we recognised last year that together 'we need to grow the congregation'. Chapter has invested in a whole new area of Family Engagement, which is already bearing much fruit and also continued to invest in outreach. We will review these changes in a year. Thank you to everyone for their comments and questions. It will be helpful for us all to be aware of how our engagement with God through worship is strengthened and nourished and to continue to reflect upon this question together.

The Rosary: The Glorious Mysteries – Sunday 20 October, 11.30am

The Rosary is intended to encourage meditation on key incidents from the Gospels and allow reflection on the implications of the Incarnation. The themes of the Rosary are divided into Joyful, Sorrowful, Glorious and Luminous mysteries. Whilst the repeated prayers invoke the Blessed Virgin Mary, the intention is to meditate on Christ, her son, and his love for us. The Rosary is an established meditation amongst catholic Anglicans but can be helpful to all, whatever their tradition within the Church of England. The Glorious Mysteries include the Resurrection and Ascension of Our Lord, the sending of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost & the Assumption. The Rosary will be led by Donald Thompson in the Lady Chapel and will last approximately 40 minutes. All are welcome to join us for this period of quiet prayer and meditation. Please contact Donald d.thompson@rhul.ac.uk if you would like more information or have any questions.

Bronze Age Flint Knife

Guildford Museum has lent us one of their fascinating bronze age treasures and it is the oldest exhibit ever displayed in the Treasury. In 1986 when Michael Adie was the Bishop of Guildford, his gardener discovered 'something different-remarkably sharp' in amongst the leeks he was forking. It turned out to be a piece of flint knapped down one side and dating from about 2000 BC to 800 BC. You can view this by visiting the Cathedral Treasury.

GUILDFORD CATHEDRAL is a place of prayer, reflection, work and celebration, held in particular affection by the many thousands of people who helped build it by buying a brick. There is much to offer to visitors and to those who are looking for a church community to call home. All regular weekday and Sunday services are open to all. The beautiful building and the excellent choral tradition contribute to making our Cathedral a place to which, once visited, you will want to return. As well as the rhythm of daily worship we maintain an exciting programme of arts, events, lectures, workshops, exhibitions and concerts.

The Cathedral is a centre for worship and mission to support the ministry of the Bishop in faith and engagement. The Cathedral is a sacred space and an open community of people who together engage with God and the wider world, for the common good. It is a focus and resource for the whole community: a place of daily choral worship, a space for stillness and prayer, a place of pilgrimage and a venue for concerts, art and education.
