HYMN 543(i)

COLLECT

God, who in generous mercy sent the Holy Spirit upon your Church in the burning fire of your love: grant that your people may be fervent in the fellowship of the gospel that, always abiding in you, they may be found steadfast in faith and active in service; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

OLD TESTAMENT Genesis 28.10-17 read by Bob Ellison

Jacob left Beer-sheba and went towards Haran. He came to a certain place and stayed there for the night, because the sun had set. Taking one of the stones of the place, he put it under his head and lay down in that place. And he dreamed that there was a ladder set up on the earth, the top of it reaching to heaven; and the angels of God were ascending and descending on it. And the Lord stood beside him and said, 'I am the Lord, the God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac; the land on which you lie I will give to you and to your offspring; and your offspring shall be like the dust of the earth, and you shall spread abroad to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south; and all the families of the earth shall be blessed in you and in your offspring. Know that I am with you and will keep you wherever you go, and will bring you back to this land; for I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you.' Then Jacob woke from his sleep and said, 'Surely the Lord is in this place – and I did not know it!' And he was afraid, and said, 'How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.'

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

When Jesus saw Nathanael coming towards him, he said of him, 'Here is truly an Israelite in whom there is no deceit!' Nathanael asked him, 'Where did you come to know me?' Jesus answered, 'I saw you under the fig tree before Philip called you.' Nathanael replied, 'Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!' Jesus answered, 'Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these.' And he said to him, 'Very truly, I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord

All Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

HYMN 377

MOTET Factum est silentium Richard Dering (1580-1630)

Factum est silentium in caelo,
Dum committeret bellum draco cum Michaelae Archangelo.
Audita est vox millia millium dicentium:
Salus, honor et virtus omnipotenti Deo.
Millia millium ministrabant ei et decies centena millia assistebant ei.

*There was silence in heaven
When the dragon fought with the Archangel Michael.
The voice of a thousand thousand was heard saying:
Salvation, honour and power be to almighty God.
A thousand thousand ministered to him and ten hundreds of thousands stood before him.*

ANTHEM Wonder David Sawer (b.1961)

How like an angel came I down!
How bright are all things here!
When first among his works I did appear,
O how their Glory did me crown!
The world resembled his Eternity,
In which my soul did work;
And everything that I did see
Did with me talk.

The skies in their magnificence,
The lively, lovely air;
Oh how divine, how soft, how sweet, how fair!
The stars did entertain my sense,
And all the works of God so bright and pure,
So rich and great did seem
As if they ever must endure,
In my esteem.

A native health and innocence
Within my bones did grow,
And while my God did all his glories show,
I felt a vigour in my sense,
That was all Spirit I within did flow.
With seas of life, like wine;
I nothing in the world did know,
But 'twas divine.

A wonderful opportunity

We are currently recruiting Volunteers for our Autumn Schools Workshops. You would be working with the Head of Family Engagement and Schools, sharing learning opportunities, stories and treasures of the cathedral with children and young people through a variety of activities. Commitment is flexible with a choice of regular or one-off sessions. We provide a friendly, supportive environment, in which volunteers are invited to contribute their skills and to grow in confidence and competence. Full training, induction and ongoing support is provided. For further information about this opportunity please contact our Volunteer Coordinator, Julie Mitchell: volunteer@guildford-cathedral.org or 01483 547885.

God for Grown-ups

Would you like an opportunity to discuss issues of Christian faith and discipleship as they relate to contemporary 21st century life? Would you like to ask those tricky questions about Christian faith that you have wanted to ask for a long time? Would you be interested in preparing for confirmation as an adult? Would you like to know about Christian faith so that you can guide your children on their journey of faith? Then God for Grown-ups is for you! This 8 week course will be led by Canon Paul and take place at his home with an informal atmosphere over tea and cake. If you are interested, please speak to him or e-mail him on Paul.Smith@guildford-cathedral.org

Safeguarding

Are you interested in joining our Safeguarding team? Following the audit in February and the appointment of Mary Morris as our Safeguarding Officer, the need for an Assistant to Mary has been identified. The Assistant would preferably be a regular attendee at Sunday services and well known to the Cathedral community. If you are interested in hearing more please contact Mary Morris 07949 685 683 / safeguarding@guildford-cathedral.org or Matt O'Grady 01483 547 864 / dops@guildford-cathedral.org

The Rosary: The Glorious Mysteries – Sunday 20 October, 11.30am

The Rosary is intended to encourage meditation on key incidents from the Gospels and allow reflection on the implications of the Incarnation. The themes of the Rosary are divided into Joyful, Sorrowful, Glorious and Luminous mysteries. Whilst the repeated prayers invoke the Blessed Virgin Mary, the intention is to meditate on Christ, her son, and his love for us. The Rosary is an established meditation amongst catholic Anglicans but can be helpful to all, whatever their tradition within the Church of England. The Glorious Mysteries include the Resurrection and Ascension of Our Lord, the sending of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost & the Assumption. The Rosary will be led by Donald Thompson in the Lady Chapel and will last approximately 40 minutes. All are welcome to join us for this period of quiet prayer and meditation. Please contact Donald d.thompson@rhul.ac.uk if you would like more information or have any questions.

Bronze Age Flint Knife

Guildford Museum has lent us one of their fascinating bronze age treasures and it is the oldest exhibit ever displayed in the Treasury. In 1986 when Michael Adie was the Bishop of Guildford, his gardener discovered `something different-remarkably sharp` in amongst the leeks he was forking. It turned out to be a piece of flint knapped down one side and dating from about 2000 BC to 800 BC. You can view this by visiting the Cathedral Treasury.

News Sheet

Items to be considered for inclusion in the weekly News Sheet should reach Emma in the Cathedral Office by Wednesday morning. All notices subject to editing and available space. Please e-mail to deanspa@guildford-cathedral.org.

GUILDFORD
CATHEDRAL

GUILDFORD CATHEDRAL is a place of prayer, reflection, work and celebration, held in particular affection by the many thousands of people who helped build it by buying a brick. There is much to offer to visitors and to those who are looking for a church community to call home. All regular weekday and Sunday services are open to all. The beautiful building and the excellent choral tradition contribute to making our Cathedral a place to which, once visited, you will want to return. As well as the rhythm of daily worship we maintain an exciting programme of arts, events, lectures, workshops, exhibitions and concerts.

The Cathedral is a centre for worship and mission to support the ministry of the Bishop in faith and engagement. The Cathedral is a sacred space and an open community of people who together engage with God and the wider world, for the common good. It is a focus and resource for the whole community: a place of daily choral worship, a space for stillness and prayer, a place of pilgrimage and a venue for concerts, art and education.
